We talk to you through the newspapers of our Carpet stocks, but after all our best advertising is done by our own customers. Store news that spreads by word of mouth may go slower than by printer's ink, but it reaches further and is more effective. Those who know the store and its stocks recognize the premier position we hold in the carpet business -ours is a carpet store. Scores of lines that are found nowhere else are on our shelves—qualities and values that others know not of.

A good word for our Mecca Brussels, a specialty of our own, 10 wire goods, weighing 2 lbs. 6 ozs. to the yard, no carpet like this for wear. Special per yard . . $1.65

Axminster is a carpet that appeals to the best taste and is put up in designs to suit almost any room, surroundings and conditions. A special in Axminster, net at $1.28

We are selling more than the usual run of Fine Brussels Carpets. You have many designs that you see nowhere else, and when you buy a Brussels here it is just exactly as our lesmen represent it to be. Prices are special.

On Wednesday evening last one of the members of the Ramblers' Cycling Club was doubted up in the presence of a large number of his brother Ramblers, as well as a great crowd of other friends, in All Saints' Church by the Rev. A. Baldwin. It seems he was not much injured by the operation, as he was seen bowling along Harbord-street to his residence, where ne shortly afterwards met a deputation of friends and relatives who can be to congratulate all concerned on his happy escape from bachelordour and single misery. The fortunate Rambler was Mr. James H. Porter, who was wedded to Miss Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. Joseph Iredaie. The presents were numerous, valuable and appropriate. The sidewalk in front of All Sants' Church was covered with rice, which zealous friends and acquaintances showered over the happy couple as emblematic of the good wishes which ail hoped would be poured out upon their Ramble on a bicycle built for two. A Montreal despatch says that great excitement has been caused by the news received that the Executive of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association has ignored the claims of Montreal for the World's Championship meet, and has selected Toronto as the place to hold it, if sanction for it is obtained.

The usual organization meeting of the blevele department of the Calumet Club will be held this (Saturday), evening in the club rooms, Yonge and Alexanderstreets, when officers will be chosen, and matters relating to the advancement of this very important branch of the club discussed. There is also a propostion on foot among the enthusiasts to form a base ball club. This will also be considered.

For a Bankers Tennis League.

From the tone of the meeting of the bankers, held in the Traders' Bank yesterday afternoon, it is likely they will have a Bankers' Tennis League in the city this summer. Arrangements have been made with the Canada Bowling and Lawn Tennis Club to play all games on these grounds. The banks entering teams are Traders', Commerce Imperial, Toronto, British, Dominion, with a combination team of the Standard, Montreal, Union and Merchants'.
