RELIGIOUS WAR SPREADING.

Some Lively Scenes Took Place in Liverpool Protestant Churches on Palm Sunday.

THE ANTI-RITUALISTS ARRESTED

Roman Catholics Delighted at the Tendency of the English Church Towards Their Methods.

London, April 2.—The religious war, which goes on with undiminished vigor, has now spread to Liverpool, where lively scenes took place in a number of Protestant churches on Palm Sunday. There for the first time the services were preceded by processions with palms. When bodies of anti-ritualists rose up and protested in the churches, the ritualists were arrested and led off to jail, while others were proceeded against by summons.

All last Sunday Liverpool was in a ferment, anti-ritualist leaders striving their utmost to stir up an agitation against what they called idolatry in the Church of England.

Meanwhile, Roman Catholics are manifesting their delight because the Church of England is drawing closer to the Church of Rome in methods of worship. Religious intolerance is being carried so far that Catholic literature is being banished from certain suburban libraries in London.

ONE ON MANAGER TAIT.

The Man Who Makes the Time Bills on the C. P. R. Gets It in the Neck.

Smith's Falls Record: Mr. Tait, manager of the C. P. R., visited Smith's Falls yesterday and while here had an illustration of the precise way orders are carried out by the local officials. He came up in his private car and, after arriving, told Mr. Spencer, the chief dispatcher, to have it turned around and hauled on to No. 4, the east-bound express. In the afternoon, Mr. Spencer carried out the manager's orders and the manager's car went rolling away at the rear of No. 4. About 20 minutes after the train had gone Mr. Tait walked into Mr. Spencer's office and asked how was No. 4? His appearance there when the chief dispatcher thought he was bowling along the rails towards Montreal was something of a surprise to him, and as he could not find the manager, he verbal organs he simply said, "No. 4 on time." Then the manager asked where she was then. "About Kempenville by this time, I think," answered Mr. Spencer and then explanations followed. At first the manager showed a little plague at being left, but he is too fair a man to be unreasonable and he was able to enjoy a laugh about it before he got away. His orders had been obeyed to the letter, and if he wanted to make sure of getting his train the next time he comes to leave word that he is to be put into his car and without doubt the chief dispatcher will see that it is done. Yesterday's incident, however, had a satisfactory termination. The private car was cut off from the train and the manager and his staff were going. It was brought back here by the first train coming this way and then sent on to Ottawa and this time the manager was in it.

Died Aged 82. George Peterson, 30 years senior member of the firm of George Peterson & Sons, 205 St. Patrick-street, grocers and liquor merchants, died last night at 82 years of age. He had been ailing for some time, but ever since the death of his wife eight weeks ago had been rapidly recovering.

In politics he was a Liberal, and in religion a Presbyterian. He was born in Yorkshire, Scotland, and was married to a daughter of Mr. J. V. Peterson, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Galloway, both of Toronto.

We will soon be having nice weather. Here your clothes will be in demand. The Tailoring and Pressing Co., King and Bay-streets.

HILLMOULDERS

The Offer of the Employers Was Discussed, But No Decisive Step Was Taken.

ACTION POSTPONED FOR A LITTLE

Officers of the International Union Expected to Be on Hand—General News of the City.

Hamilton, April 2.—(Special.)—The Hamilton moulders, to the number of 800, assembled in Sweeney's Hall this afternoon to consider what steps to take in regard to the employers' offer of 10 per cent. instead of 15 per cent., as asked by the men. The reports of the committees that waited on the bosses were received. It was reported that Kerr & Coombs, who own a day shop, had agreed to pay $2.25 a day. The only firm who have not given an answer are the Garsshore-Thompson Company and the Sawyer-Massey Company. The reports were discussed at length, but as the struggle is not confined to Hamilton, the London and Stratford moulders, acting in accord with the men, it was decided to lay over any further consideration till next Wednesday night, when M. J. Keough, second vice-president, and organizer of the International Iron Moulders' Union, will be present and discuss the situation with the men. As Mr. Keough will meet in London and Stratford moulders to-morrow and Tuesday nights, it is expected that the decision arrived at next Wednesday night will be final, and will dispose of the matter one way or the other in all three cities. It is said here, unofficially of course, that the Hamilton moulders are disposed to grant the employers' 10 per cent. If the London and Stratford moulders will give the 5 per cent., but they claim that without this they cannot compete with the makers of those cities.

Bright But Cold. The sun shone brightly to-day, but the air was very chilly and most of the fair ones who had bought new hats or bonnets stylish dresses kept them at home for a more favorable opportunity of displaying the churches had fine musical services and the congregations were large.

Work for the Commissioners. The new Board of License Commissioners met yesterday. Dr. Griffin took his seat on the Board and Mr. John Proctor was re-elected chairman. The commissioners decided to make the following license transfers: St. Nicholas Hotel, from Neil McLean to Jones & Horton, to be paid to-morrow; Victoria Hotel, from W. B. Beattie to J. E. Smith, to be paid to-morrow. John Stroud was given permission to move his hotel from Macanab-street to Merck-street.

All the present holders of licenses applied for renewals. There were no new applicants.

Police Points. Last night Sergeant Castell and five police-men raided an alleged house of ill-repute at the corner of Jackson-street and Ferguson-avenue, kept by Carrie Austin. Three women and four men were taken to the place. The women were arrested, their names were George Austin, keeper, May Wilson and Lillian McFarland, inmates. The men were allowed to go.

George Ringland, who was arrested a week ago on suspicion of having stolen a number of coats from the clothing store of Daniel Cronin, who has been using three wagons to haul coats without taking out licenses, was given a week to procure the licenses.

JOSEPH MINCHAN'S DEATH.

Sequel to Accident on Canadian Pacific Track at Orangeville.

A PROMISING CAREER CUT SHORT

Deceased Was Brother of Rev. Father Minchan—Accumulated Terrible Injuries.

An accident which has led to the sacrifice of a promising life occurred on Thursday evening near the Orangeville station. The victim was Joseph Minchan, youngest brother of Rev. Father Minchan of St. Peter's Church, in this city.

The youth was expecting his brother James from Toronto on the evening train and had gone down to the depot to meet him. He was standing on the platform, and, on seeing the train from Owen Sound coming, he jumped to the side of the rails, with the intention of getting on the steps of one of the cars. When the baggage car came up he tried to swing himself onto the step. Owing to the snow in which he was standing, he lost his footing and fell. He fell between the cars and his right leg was caught between the brake and the wheel. Brakemen who saw him fall put on the brakes and the train was brought to a standstill.

His injuries fatal. Minchan was carried into the Royal Hotel and his brother, who was with him, called a doctor. His right leg was terribly crushed and the hip to the ankle, and it was evident that he could not survive. He remained conscious until near 11 o'clock Friday morning, when he died.

His body was embalmed and brought to Toronto on Saturday morning and removed to his brother's home, 572 West Beaver-road, Blackburn, where he was laid out.

The deceased was 15 years of age and was born in Ireland. He came to Toronto about three years ago and shortly afterwards went to Orangeville. There he attended the school of the Holy Trinity, and was a member of the Holy Trinity choir.

There was more trouble at the Hebrew Synagogue, Bay Jacob, on Hunter-street, yesterday, and one of the congregation was injured. The trouble was caused by a woman who was charged with assault.

Mrs. Rymal, King William-street, was killed when on the way to a golden wedding celebration at Dundas on Friday evening. She was struck by a car and died.

Bandmaster Robinson is confined to his home by a severe cold.

The annual At Home of the Collegiate Institute, which was held at the Hotel de Ville, was a success.

WAS HIS SWINDLE GAME?

Alleged Promoters of a Building Association Combine Charged With Grand Larceny.

THREE WERE OF NEW YORK CITY

And It Is Thought They Were Endeavoring to Do Up a Buffalo Loan Association.

Buffalo, N.Y., April 2.—The arrest of John L. White, whose address is given as the St. Paul Building, Broadway, New York city, and Charles L. Eastwood, said to be of Syracuse, and the issuing of warrants for the arrest of John J. W. Reynolds, who is said to have an office in the Galatin National Bank Building, 36 Wall-street, New York, all on the charge of grand larceny, has brought to light an alleged scheme to make away with the assets of the Globe Savings and Loan Association of this city.

The four men mentioned came to Buffalo a month ago, and, according to the story as told by the police, visited the office of the Buffalo Loan Association, which they were organizing a building association combine or trust, and wanted the credit of the Globe Association and its assets.

On March 27, Eastwood, White and the other two men came to Buffalo again, and the following day they arrived at the directors of the Globe Association resigned and Eastwood and his friends were elected to the place.

The new board at once proceeded to organize by electing White as president and Eastwood as secretary and treasurer. Accompanied by the former treasurer of the association, Eastwood, visited various banks in which money was deposited to draw out the money and to make a payment on it.

Later in the day Eastwood returned to Buffalo and drew out of the bank $10,000, saying that the association had bought a tract of land in Queens County, N.Y., and that the money was to be used as a payment on it.

Eastwood at the same time deposited the cash in the bank and drew out several other banks for the amount of the loan association's balance, stating that the money was to be used as a payment on it.
