

The two largest girls in the Mothercraft class held by the Victorian Order of Nurses, Winnipeg. The doll in the centre of the photograph is a substitute for them to practice on. On graduation they were given a small white badge which appears as a white spot on their dresses.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

Wants Help.
Dear Miss Grey—I am coming to your Mail-Box for a little help, and hope to not bother you too much. I am a constant reader of The Advertiser and take great interest in your page. Last summer or autumn I remember of seeing where a Roman Catholic Mother wanted to place her girl in a home in the country for the vacation. I wonder if she ever received a reply. I am a young widow, not much past the thirty, and have three children. The eldest, a girl, is 12. Now, I would like to hear from a refined Roman Catholic mother who would be willing to take my eldest girl for a time. She is a big girl and able to help with a baby or do some light work about the house. I would prefer someone in London or near it. We were not left with many of the luxuries which this world affords some people, so I find it pretty hard to make life very comfortable. Hoping, Miss Grey, that my letter is not too long and that I will see it in print. I will then forward you my address and name. Best of luck to the Mail-Box. I will sign my initials.
MISS A. A. F.

Likes Arguments.
Dear Miss Grey—Here is another silent reader of your page. It is very interesting sometimes when there is an argument in progress, for it is fun to listen to women quarrel, especially for boys like myself.
Say, Miss Grey, I wish you were here to get some taffy. What is better than maple syrup taffy?
Please find inclosed stamped and self-addressed envelope for Irish Colleen's address: also 10 cents for S. C. H.
I will sign myself. COWBOY JOHN.

Who Can Help?
Dear Miss Grey—Inclosed please find a little contribution to the C. H. fund. Please send me the pattern of foot pattern. My stocking basket looks as if it needed something of the kind. Can any of your readers tell me how to remove nicotine stains from a marble mantelpiece?
Ans.—I hope some of our Mail-Box members may be able to give you a suggestion to state. Pattern mailed. Thanks for contribution.

Wants Cat Pattern.
Dear Miss Grey—I am an interested reader of the Mail-Box. This is just my second letter, and I hope you will give me a pattern of the Scotch cats. The little girls were so much last evening. Would be pleased to get one also the mitt pattern, but hope we will not need any more mittens. Here is a hint. Did anyone ever try to bake potatoes in the frying pan on top of the stove? I saved fuel, and takes about half an hour. I also send recipe for:

Raisin Oatmeal Drops.
One cup yellow sugar, 1 cup shortening, 1 cup cooked raisins, 5 tablespoons of juice of raisins, 1½ cups oatmeal, 1½ cups flour, mixed spice, ½ teaspoon soda dissolved in raisin juice; beat well and drop in small pieces on buttered pan. Bake in slow oven.
Find inclosed 10 cents for C. H. Fund, also self-addressed envelope.
WIDOW—MOTHER OF THREE.
Ans.—Pattern of Scotch cat referred to readers. Thanks for dime.

From Cinderella.
Dear Miss Grey—I am calling once more to your cozy corner. We have received ever so many useful recipes and hints. They are especially helpful to me, as I am just learning to bake. Mother thinks I am a great help. I wish you could see my baby sister; she's a dream. I don't think I could be without her—she is so sweet. Could you tell me what is good for frozen feet? Would anyone be kind enough to send me some crocheted patterns and recitations? Will you please send me recipe for marshmallows. As we have often made them, I will send in the recipe. I am sending a quarter for the children's fund. I think I will close, as my letter is getting rather long. Yours sincerely, CINDERELLA.

Marshmallows.
Two cups of white sugar, put on enough water to make a syrup; boil till threads, stir and cool; then add a box of gelatin that has been soaked in water; then stir and pour out in a pan to about half an inch thick. Then cut in squares and roll in pink or white sugar.
Ans.—Well, Cinderella, I hope it isn't you who has frozen feet. You know, Cinderella was minus a shoe, and the weather was freezing. Cold water will remove frost. Thanks for your donation.

Wants Recitations.
Dear Miss Grey—This is not the first time I have written to your page. I hope you will mind me coming again. I wish to thank the readers who so kindly offered me poems to read on dress. The coal-oil worked fine. One seldom appeals in vain for help to The Advertiser. Can anyone supply me with the words of the following pieces: "A Rainy Day in the Garret," "Piling Up the Wood-Box," "Keeping Lent," and the "Logging Day of '66"? I have good ones in exchange for these. The titles of some are, "Older Joe," "Cutting Baby's Hair," "Trouble in the Aunt's Corner," "A Yankee in Love," and many others. Send them in advance. I will close and send another time for the C. H. F.

Ans.—Who will forward the recitations requested? Thank you.

A Large Order.
Dear Cynthia—Have you any of the following pieces on hand? If so, will you kindly send them to me? As before, I'll copy them and return your copies to you again. They are: "On Garret's Look," "Young Munroe," "Bill Mason's Bride," "Father, Dear Father, Come Home With Me Now," "He Planted a Pumpkin Seed and Prayed for a Field of Corn," and "Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight." This seems rather a large order, but I'll do something for you, Cynthia, some time, and help the readers wherever I can. I gladly send the necessary compensation. Thanking you in advance, I am always Ans.—I am forwarding several of your requests and will forward others when I receive them. Perhaps I may need your help yet.

Playing Postoffice.
Miss Grey—I saw in the Mail-Box that A. W. R. O. S. would like to correspond, and if she would write to me I would be glad to answer her; also any others. Would also like to correspond with Harry E. H. Will leave my address with Miss Grey. An revoir.
WINSOME WIN.

Anything To Oblige.
Dear Miss Grey—I have come to bother you again. I saw in the Mail-Box where Happy Sal would like to correspond with me, and may I have her address? I am also a Scotch runner and Musical Harry, which I hope, Miss Grey, you will kindly forward. I will try and send a little hint for Children's Hospital next time I come. Well, I will not need that famous stock-top of the stove. I saved fuel, and takes about half an hour. I also send recipe for:

Raisin Oatmeal Drops.
