

20 ROUNDS FOR CHAMP TO STOP BRENNAN ON TITLE HUNT

DEMPSEY TURNS BACK BRENNAN'S STRONG BID FOR TITLE IN 12TH ROUND

Left To Heart and Right To Wind Did Trick, Half Way Through the Twelfth, After Brennan Had Made Matters Fairly Even Earlier—Brennan Made Game Effort To Beat the Count.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Dec. 14.—Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, knocked out Bill Brennan of Chicago tonight in the twelfth round of the first heavyweight championship fight staged in New York since the Walker law became operative.

There were many opinions expressed by fight fans as to Dempsey's inability to quickly finish his opponent. When Dempsey did cut loose, however, he certainly made a quick job of it, but it was not until after Brennan had shown that he was absolutely unafraid of the champion's punches and had split Dempsey's left ear with a right hook.

The champion proved to be Brennan's master in nearly every stage of the bout, but the challenger withstood many hard blows in the wind and ribs through his magnificent physical condition.

Dempsey weighed 188 and Brennan 197 pounds. It was estimated that there were 14,000 persons present and that the receipts would reach $250,000. Brennan's share was announced at $100,000, and it was understood Brennan would receive $35,000.

In the preliminary bouts Marty Farrell, local middleweight, defeated Frank McGuire of Williamsport, Penna., in six rounds.

Charley Weinst of Newark, N. J., heavyweight, got the decision over Bartley Madden of New York in 10 rounds. Kid Norfolk and Bill Tate, heavyweights, fought to a draw in the training camps, respectively, put on the curtain raiser. Norfolk, though 42 pounds lighter than Tate, received the decision.

The Fight By Rounds.

FIRST ROUND—The men go into the center of the ring, Dempsey landing first, a right chop to the head. They exchanged lefts and rights to the body at close quarters and clinched frequently. Brennan worked left hooks to the head while Dempsey sent two rights to the head, one of which narrowly missed Brennan's chin. Both Dempsey scratched Brennan's right eye with left hook. Dempsey's round by a shade.

ROUND THREE—They rushed into a clinch and then exchanged body blows. Both landed short right uppercuts. Dempsey ducked into a right hook, which was followed by a left and right to the head. Dempsey then started after his man with left and right hooks, but seemingly did not put much power into the blows. Dempsey showed a slight scratch over his nose. There were a few rapid exchanges, with Dempsey crossing his right hand to the ear, the hardest blow so far in the fight. The champion, whether intentionally or not, missed a couple of right hooks for the head and then brought his left to Brennan's mouth, which was bleeding at the close of the round. Dempsey's round.

ROUND FOUR—They exchanged body blows with both hands and then landed with left and right hooks at close quarters. Dempsey hooked a left lead for the face and sent a short right over the heart. There was a good deal of ineffective work at close quarters. Brennan sent his right twice to the head. The champion came back with a stiff left to the face and a short right cross to the ear. Then Dempsey met Brennan with a left hook and shot two vicious rights to the head. Brennan was using more steam into his blows at this stage and hooked lefts and rights to the head. Brennan was using more steam into his blows at this stage and hooked lefts and rights to the head. Brennan was using more steam into his blows at this stage and hooked lefts and rights to the head.

ROUND FIVE—After some short arm exchanges and a clinch, Dempsey was cautioned for touching his man lightly on the face in the breakaway. Dempsey dodged from a right hook and sent three hard rights to the stomach and ribs, forcing Brennan into a neutral corner. He hooked his right twice to the stomach, and when they came to the center of the ring again, Dempsey sent two rights to the body just before the going rang out. It was Dempsey's round by a good margin.

ROUND SIX—They battled for a minute, tapping each other lightly. Then Dempsey hooked his right to the head, and Brennan retaliated with two right body blows. They exchanged hard body blows with both hands, and Dempsey hooked a stiff left over the heart. In a mixup Dempsey hooked his right to the wind, and blocked many attempts by Brennan with short arm uppercuts.

Lee Walden Chosen Manager of O. H. A. Intermediates

Veteran Player As Pilot Looks Like Good Choice.

Lee Walden was appointed manager of the London Intermediates team at last night's meeting of the O. H. A. A. A. Walden, besides knowing a lot about hockey, also has the faculty of getting along with most people who can be lived with at all. Lee as a player was in the London team, and at the time when he was always turned in a constant game. He is keenly enthusiastic over the prospect of this year, and has kinds of pep to the work. He will continue to coach as well.

GIPP, GRID STAR, DIES

SOUTHBEND, Ind., Dec. 14.—George Gipp, Notre Dame football star, died early this morning from streptococcal throat disease. He was 24 years old. Gipp had been ill since the Notre Dame-Northwestern game on November 20. His ability as a football player was on a par with that in baseball, and during his illness he was informed that he had been offered a contract by the Chicago National League Baseball Club. His home was
