Charming Kimonos That Come From Japan

Sashed and Sleeved in True Geisha Fashion, Embroidered, Oh, So Prettily, and Priced Withal at the Incredible Sum of $1.50 and $1.75 for Those of Cotton Crepe, and $5.95 for Those of Silk

The Smart General Utility Coat of Tan Cloth

In Poiret Twill, Fine Wool Poplin, or the Splendidly - serviceable, Always Fashionable Covert Coating

AS A TOP-COAT which will gracefully adapt itself to any occasion that may crop up and demand the wearing of a wrap, let us commend one of these models in tan cloth.

They are plain-tailored and yet not severe. They are warm and yet not heavy. They are modish in line and finish, and yet of that conservative type which permits of much wearing without wearying of either style or color. They are well suited to general street use and serve admirably for motoring or traveling. Moreover, in the present display of such coats, many special values are being featured. For instance:

At $19.75, collection of three-quarter length coats in Poiret twill, fine wool poplin and covert cloth, in various shades of fawn and tan—clever reproductions of high-priced Paris and New York designs, beautifully tailored, the majority lined throughout with satin. Many are individual models, while a wide selection is afforded of semi-fitting and loose-fitting styles, belts and the fashionable saddle-bag pocket being well represented.

At $12.50, a splendid array of smart coats in light and dark tones of all-wool covert cloth—wide-sleeved, raglan effects, loosely belted skirts with military or convertible collars, semi-fitting designs with the panel fronts and backs especially well-suited to stout figures, and many of the latest and fancy coats, including a few Princess models.

At $11.50, a particularly nice-looking coat in all-wool covert cloth in a dark khaki tint—plain tailored, with sectional belt, mannish, notched collar and smoked pearl buttons. Also at the same price in tan covert cloth, loose raglan, and belted models with flaring skirts.

This is Interesting

TO join the stream of refugees in their flight across the Marne, with the murderous Boches bearing down upon them, a few miles behind—to have the lumbering farm-cart in which she traveled peppered by bullets from a patrol of Uhlans—to witness the horrors and heroism of a hospital within the firing line—to sit perched for a day on the front of a British Army Supply Truck and act as interpreter for two English officers in their dealings with French merchants returning to their homes across the battlefields, and find that her home, the lovely Chateau de Villiers had been occupied for five days by General von Kluck and his staff—such were some of the experiences of Frances Wilson Huard, an American woman married to the well-known French artist of that name. She tells the story vividly, dispassionately, and calls it "My Home on the Field of Honor." Its illustrations are sketches made by her husband. And to read it is to hear the cannonading, to see the empty, shell-torn villages—to understand something of the superb spirit of France. The book is without doubt one of the most graphic pen pictures which have been drawn of those first desperate months of the war. The price of it is 15c.

For Summer cottage housekeeping, centerpieces and dollies in Japanese cotton charmingly printed in old blue with corn flowers, stalks, Chinese dragons or the familiar landscape of the willow plate. They are 35 cents per set, the set consisting of half-a-dozen 6-inch dollies and a 24-inch centre. Small lunch napkins in patterns to match are $1.20 per dozen.

The bedspread of white voile inset with panels of pink or yellow flowered voile, and bandings of flit lace. Beautifully fine of texture and very daintily fashioned, it makes a delightful quilt for the well-furnished bedroom. The size is 10 by 10 inches, and the price, $18.00.

Japanese water flowers, the curious little wafers which when dropped into a finger bowl or glass of water expand and develop into fascinating birds, flowers and fish in all tints of color. As favors for the amusement of guests at the informal dinner-party, or for the entertainment of the small fry in the nursery, they are equally successful. Tinning little packages containing six or seven flowers each, are priced at 30 cents per dozen. They are to be found in the Stationery Department.

The Scribe.

A silk kimono with wide box sleeves, and loose sash is attractively embroidered in creamy white and pale green. It is featured in sizes 32, 34 and 36 only, and may be had in a wide range of shades—cherry red, wine red, gold, black, navy, Saxe blue, brown, tan and rose. Price, $5.95.

A New De Laine Dressing Gown

This is caught into the waistline by elastic, and is finished around the neck and sleeves with a narrow ruffle of ribbon. The De Laine is striped, with a floral border running down either side of the front—Copenhagen and white stripe with pink bordered, pale blue and white with lavender or blue border, and lavender with purple. Price, $6.50.

The "Nemo" Has Models to Suit All Figures

LARGE, STOUT WOMEN flock to Miss Newport's fitting rooms in the Corset Department. The "Nemo" is a boon to them, and Miss Newport's services invaluable. But, perhaps it is not so generally understood that to the slight and "medium" the visit of this New York corsetiere is likewise of distinct advantage. Her advice in the choice of a corset is an immense help in the finding of the model best suited to the individual need.

Furthermore the splendid variety of the Nemo and Smart Set numbers—especially featured during Miss Newport's stay—provide sure satisfaction for every type of figure. Every problem in corseting is met by their diversity of design. There are models for stout, thin, tall, short, angular, well-rounded, sloping, erect—every description of figure in the category.

The Blouse With the Frills Has It All Its Own Way And, Strange to Say, It's Suited Alike to the Slim and the Stout, Being Graceful, Becoming and Chic

"LET THE BLOUSE HAVE ITS FLING," says Fashion, and behold two frills flaring out smartly from its collar in front. Pleated, gathered or mysteriously "shaped," they float from a whole multitude of new models. They are the very essence of style in blouse designing.

There are delightful lingerie blouses, airy and dainty with frills that are embroidered or edged with lace, a touch of color being often introduced. Voile, organdy and marquisette are the materials employed, charming models being featured at $2.75, $3.50, $3.95 and $5.00—on up to $9 and $10.

In the all-conquering Georgette crepe—lively, flesh and maize—are alluring examples of the frilled blouse at $5.00, $7.50, $9.50 and $10.00.

And others still are available in Crepe de Chine in white, flesh, maize and black—prices, $3.95, $5.00 and $7.50.

SIT OF GERMAN SUB. MAKES STIR IN EUROPE

Spanish Government Asked to Give Further Particulars on Subject.

BORE KAISER'S LETTER

Submarine Must Leave Cartagena Harbor Within Twenty-Four Hours.

MADRID, June 22.—The newspaper Pais says the diplomatic representatives of certain of the foreign countries have asked the Spanish Government for further particulars in regard to the visit of the U-55.

The German submarine, U-55, commanded by Lieut. Von Arnault, arrived at Cartagena today with a letter from Emperor William to King Alfonso. The lieutenant said the letter expressed the emperor's thanks for the attention given by Spain to the request from the Kaiser.

The submarine first anchored alongside the interned German steamship Roma, but the port authorities required her to move and take up anchorage near the Spanish cruiser Catalina.

The secretary of the German embassy arrived here on a special train late last night for the purpose of receiving the letter, accompanied by the German consul, he went on board the submarine and visited the commander. A Spanish cruiser and a destroyer received orders to watch closely the movements of the submarine. In structions were given to keep the entrances to the harbor lighted brightly with searchlights.

24 HOURS' LIMIT.

LONDON, June 22, 6:02 p.m.—An official despatch today states that the British ambassador at Madrid yesterday called on the Spanish prime minister and expressed the hope that the U-55 would disappear from Cartagena harbor at the expiration of the 24 hours allowed by international law. The minister made no further representations to the Spanish premier, the despatch adds.

CLASH AT CARRIZAL IS REGARDED AS INCIDENT

Washington Sees No Reason as Yet to Change Its Policy.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—No reason for a change in policy toward Mexico is seen by the Washington Government in Mexican accounts of the clash at Carrizal yesterday between American and Carranza troops. Until a report comes from General Pershing there will be no decision, but President Wilson is said to view the fight as an incident for which subordinate commanders probably were responsible, and not as an act likely to precipitate general hostilities.

Further information regarding activities for peace of foreign diplomats at Mexico City reached the state department during the day. From the same sources it was learned that Carranza was exerting every effort to avoid a break with the United States and at the same time to restrain belligerent demands of some of his own advisers.

Official War Statements

French.

Yesterday afternoon's French communiqué said:

"On both banks of the River Meuse last night was marked by a series of pronounced attacks by the enemy, which followed bombardments of great severity.

"On the left bank of the river the Germans attacked our trenches upon the southern slopes of Dead Man Hill. During the course of a spirited engagement with hand grenades our troops were successful in completely repelling the enemy and in retaining all their positions.

"On the right bank of the river the fighting continued with ferocity in the region to the west and to the south of Fort de Vaux. Yesterday evening a powerful German attack was successful in penetrating a small wood to the southeast of the Fumini Wood. We, however, at once delivered a counter-attack and chased the enemy out. At about midnight a further offensive action was directed by the enemy upon our positions reaching from the Fumini Wood to a point to the east of Chemis, and was repulsed with sanguinary losses. At the Fumini Wood and at Chemis the enemy succeeded in securing lodgment in some of our advanced trenches between these two positions. At about 2 o'clock in the morning an attack with hand grenades against our positions to the north of Hill 321 failed under our fire.

"The night passed quietly on the remainder of the front, except in the Champagne district, where the artillery fighting was very spirited along the front from Maisons de Champagne to Mont Tottu."

"A French air squadron went out in German.

The German war office reported yesterday: "A weak attack by a British detachment near Frelingheim, northeast of Arrmentieres, was repulsed. West of La Bassee a German patrol detachment brought in some British prisoners.

"On the east bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) infantry fighting developed. We gained some advantages in the Meuse valley, south of Verdun, and early this morning attacked railway establishments and troop encampments at Ravigny."

"Army group of Field Marshal von Hindenburg—except for successful

German patrol incursions there is nothing to report.

"Army group of Gen. von Lin-singen—Russian attacks against the central position southwest of Logischin and west of Kolki failed. Between Sokul and Lintewka, Russian positions taken by us were held against strong counter-attacks.

"Continuous efforts of the enemy to dispute our successes northwest of the Meuse without result. On both sides of the Turia and further south over the general line from Svinoukh to Grochow the Russians were driven further back. Bombs were dropped on the railroad at Men, on the Fripel, south of Luniniec.

"Army group of General Count von Bothmer—Strong enemy attacks from the Halvorenka-Bobulintze line, north of Przewlodka, were repulsed with severe enemy losses.

"Balkan front—There is nothing to report."

ABRAHAM ATKINSON IS FOUND DEAD IN CELLAR

Abraham Atkinson, 66 Pembroke street, was found dead in the cellar of Liggett's Drug Store, 106 Yonge street, yesterday morning.

From the position of the body it is thought that Atkinson tripped over a box, fell face downwards and suffocated. The body was taken to the morgue, and it is probable that an inquest will be held. Atkinson has a sister working in a Yonge street restaurant, who has been notified of his death.

Victor Moore, the Chimmie Fadden of stage and screen lustre, has quit the Lasky studio, according to information from the coast. It is whispered that Mr. Moore was dissatisfied with his recent vehicles. Since abandoning footlights for silver-sheet Mr. Moore has placed himself in the front rank of film comedians.

MONEY DUE MOYES GOES TO CREDITORS

Statement of Mayor Church When Presented With Bill for Valuating Railway.

"The Moyes family will never get this money," Mayor Church declared yesterday when presented with a bill for $3440 from John W. Moyes for valuating the assets of the Toronto Street Railway Co. The mayor declared that anything due Moyes would be turned over to his creditors.

Secretary McQueen pointed out that the bill was incorrect. The balance outstanding was only $6240. The legal department will report whether the city is liable for the sum.

BOARD OF CONTROL MADE GRANTS TO BATTALIONS

When the board of control came to consider grants to various battalions yesterday, Controller Cameron opposed a grant to the 7th Battery because he said the boys were not properly fed. Controller Thompson pointed out that that was a good reason why he should support the grant and Controller Cameron was overruled. The following grants were recommended:

70th Battery, $500, recruiting depot, $1000; University United, $500; No. 1 Construction Battalion, $1040; 224th Battalion, $500; Ammunition Column 18th Brigade, C. E. F., $250; Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, $250; Royal Canadian Dragoons, $300; and 201st Battalion, $1000.

CITY HALL NOTES

The city architect's department yesterday issued a $25,000 permit for the construction of the Pauline Avenue Methodist Church and Sunday School.

The appointment of an acting corporation counsel has been deferred two weeks. The board of control discussed the matter at a private conference with City Solicitor Johnston yesterday, and decided not to place the matter before council on Monday.

Seventy track repair men working on King street from Bathurst street, went on strike yesterday at noon because Controller Harris would not grant them about half a cent increase and Saturday afternoon and all legal holidays off. The men were before the board of control yesterday.

After a secret conference with the harbor commission yesterday, the board of control decided that before any action was taken to protect the island there should be a conference with the federal government.

The board of control decided that the board withdraw its decision of Wednesday authorizing the harbor board to make temporary repairs.
