A PLATE YOU CAN EAT WITH, HELD IN POSITION BY OUR NEWLY IMPROVED QUADRUPLE ATTACHMENT. People don't want artificial teeth to carry around in their pockets nor keep at home in their breast drawer so they will know where to find them when the door bell rings, they want teeth for service. If you have a plate that no dentist has been able to make fit, why not try us; we have satisfied thousands and why not you? Our teeth are so natural in size, shape, color and the expression they afford to the features as to defy detection EVEN BY A DENTIST unless closely examined. Our new attachment holds them as solid almost as though they were riveted in the mouth.

$150 FOR TWO BOXES

Thomas E. Shea and Corse Peyton Subscribe to Eugene McAuliffe's Benefit.

The benefit performance to be given in the Opera House to-night for young Eugene McAuliffe by the Jere McAuliffe Stock Company, is apparently attracting much attention abroad as well as in the city. This morning Mr. McAuliffe received a telegram from Thomas E. Shea, the well-known actor, who, by the way, is Eugene's godfather. It read: "One hundred dollars for a box to-night." Another message was received from Corse Peyton, of Peyton's Brooklyn Theatre, saying: "Save me one box for to-night. Enclosed find $25." The donations point to a record-breaking crowd for to-night's show.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Rhoda Hastings
 After a lingering illness Mrs. Rhoda Hastings, widow of the late Edward Hastings, died on Oct. 9th, at the home of her son, James Hastings, Hampstead, Queens Co.

She leaves five sons, James of Hampstead, William, Ernest, and Guilford of St. Francis, and Thomas of this city; and one brother, E. J. Clark, of Woodstock.

Mrs. Evelyn Leonard
 The death took place this morning after a lingering illness, of Miss Evelyn Leonard, eldest daughter of Alfred Leonard, of 93 Marsh Road. The deceased young lady was a general favorite amongst her large circle of relatives and friends. She was in her twentieth year and her loss will be deplored by all who knew her. She was a member of St. Mary's church, in which she always took very great interest. Her place in the choir, Girls' Guild, and Sunday School, will not be easily filled. The members of the Sunday School and other organizations will attend the funeral services in St. Mary's church on Sunday afternoon. The sympathy of a large circle of friends will be extended to the bereaved family, and the death of the daughter, having followed closely on that of her brother, the late William Leonard.

Mrs. Anne Howard
 The death of Anne, widow of David Howard, occurred at the home of her son, William, 66 Simonds street, North End, this morning. The deceased, who was 78 years of age, is survived by three sons, David and William, all of this city. No arrangements have been made as yet for the funeral.

FUNERALS

The funeral of John Campbell, who committed suicide by drinking carboic acid took place this afternoon from his late home 202 Britain street at 2:30 o'clock. Service was conducted by Rev. C. W. Souther and interment was in St. Hill.

The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Millett will take place from her home on Brunswick street tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2:30 not Sunday as announced in morning papers.

The funeral of John T. Hayes took place from his late home Golden Grove this afternoon at 2 o'clock to the Catholic church, Silver Falls, where service was held by Father O'Neill. Interment was in the New Catholic Cemetery.

Funeral services were held at the home of the late A. L. Spencer, Germain street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. W. W. McMaster. Members of the Knights of Pythias here attended. The body will be forwarded to Bargar this evening for interment where it will be met by a delegation of Bargar knights who will have charge of the burial.
