

ENIGMA. The following neat Enigma has been ascribed to the late Mr. Carrington, who, like Fox, Porson, Sheridan, and many other clever men, could occasionally indulge in literary trifling.

At a recent meeting of the council of the Horticultural Society of London, it was resolved that in future Ladies should enjoy all the privileges to which Fellows are entitled, and be present at the various meetings when fruits and flowers, seeds and cuttings of rare fruit trees, are exhibited and dispersed among the Fellows.

Hoo Lo.—A Chinese, born in one of the boats on the Bocca Tigris, a workman in the factories, aged thirty-seven, and named Hoo Lo, is now at Guy's Hospital, waiting an operation. This unfortunate man has been for eleven years troubled with a constantly growing tumour at the bottom of the abdomen.

COLONIAL UNION.

At a Meeting of the following Gentlemen, appointed at Public Meetings in the respective Colonies, to which their Names are annexed, viz:—

- Barbadoes—The Honorable John Rycroft Best, the Hon. Joseph William Jones, the Hon. John St. John, Esq. Antigua—Colonel F. F. Brown, Esq. St. Vincent—The Hon. Sir Wm. Smith, Kt., Michael White, Esq.

That while every other interest of the Empire has been relieved from the pressure of the War, the West India Colonies, after a period of fifteen years of Peace, still labour under exactions imposed upon the staple articles of their Produce imported into Great Britain, which ought, in justice, to have ceased with the necessity that gave rise to them.

That another prominent cause of distress in the West India Colonies, after a period of fifteen years of Peace, still labour under exactions imposed upon the staple articles of their Produce imported into Great Britain, which ought, in justice, to have ceased with the necessity that gave rise to them.

That the right of Property has been sacrificed by various Acts of Parliament, encouraging their ancestors to embark their Capital, their Industry, and their Fortune, in the settlement of lands, on the express condition of cultivating them by the labour of Slaves imported into these Colonies by British Subjects.
