

The Evening Times Star

VOL. XIII No. 324

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JULY 12, 1917

TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

No Let Up To Russian Drive; Kalusz Captured

Headquarters of Enemy in That Part of Galicia Taken

Sanguinary Fight, But Germans Defeated—Hun Fails to Advance Farther in Belgium and Makes Useless Attempts Against French Lines

General Brusseloff's offensive in Galicia is developing into a drive with little or no let up, at least so far as the part in it played by General Korniloff's armies is concerned.

Yesterday's news of the capture of Halicz was followed today by the announcement that Korniloff's troops had pushed on beyond Lesiwka, south-west of Stanislaw, and reached occupied Kalusz, a city of 5,000 people, seven miles to the west of the Stoka river. The Austro-German headquarters in this sector was situated here. Kalusz was stubbornly defended, but a sanguinary battle the Russians pushed into the town and, according to advices from Petrograd, they are continuing their advance after having taken a large number of prisoners.

GERMANS FAIL TO CONTINUE

The German attack on Monday on the Belgian coast ceased with the capture of the small sector east of the Yser which had devastated that district with their intensive gun fire. Neither last night's nor today's British official announcement records any further fighting of moment in this region, although the artillery is continuing active. A German raid near Lombard-Zyde was driven off by the British.

On the Verdun front the German Crown Prince made several attacks on both banks of the Meuse. All these assaults, delivered in the vicinity of Hill 304, on the one side of the stream and north of of Hardsaumont work on the other, were repulsed by the French, as were attacks on the Aisne front, south of Juvincourt and in the region of the Triggade plateau.

Petrograd, July 12.—The Russians have captured Kalusz, the headquarters of the enemy in Galicia, according to a semi-official announcement made today.

According to information received at the ministry of war the Russian troops are continuing their successful advance and have taken a large number of prisoners.

Kalusz is a city of about 8,000 population, twenty-eight miles southeast of St.

Petrograd, July 12.—Official announcement that Kalusz had been occupied by the Russians was made today, coupled with the statement that the occupation was effected after a sanguinary battle.

Russia's New Hero

Petrograd, July 12.—Russia is ringing with the name of the latest hero of her war, Lieutenant-General L. G. Korniloff, victor of Galicia, who distinguished himself first in the capture of Kalusz and is now being hailed as a hero. He is a native of the province of Pskov, and is a member of the nobility. He is a graduate of the military academy, and has served in the Russo-Japanese war. He is a member of the Order of St. George, and has been awarded several other decorations. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

From the log cabin to general in the Imperial Army, Korniloff's career, from 46 years ago, is a record of military success. He is a man of great courage and ability, and his victory at Kalusz is a great triumph for Russia.

EX-MAYOR TO HALIFAX ON THE MATTER OF COAL SUPPLY

Premier Foster Appoints Dr. Frink to Represent New Brunswick

CONFERENCE WITH CONTROLLER

Mr. MacGrath to Meet Representatives of Maritime Provinces—Food Controller Hanna Also Asks For Appointment in Matter of Food

Fredericton, July 12.—Premier Foster has been advised by C. A. MacGrath, who has been placed in control of the fuel situation throughout Canada by the federal government, that he proposes to hold a conference of representatives from the maritime provinces in Halifax on Friday. In a telegram to the premier Mr. MacGrath states that he had had a conference with all the members of the House of Commons from the maritime provinces with regard to the coal situation and they found that the problem was so complex and extending over such a large area and the time so limited that the assistance was required of the three maritime provinces.

He made the suggestion that each of the premiers of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island might select a capable man charged with the duty to render public service in an honorary capacity and the three thus selected to act as an advisory committee in assisting him.

The premier has requested Dr. Frink of St. John to act as the representative for New Brunswick and will leave for Halifax tonight to meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

The premier has received another telegram from Hon. W. J. Hanna, formerly a minister of the federal government, in which he requests that someone be named from the province to act as an advisory committee on food control at hotels, restaurants and clubs and who would advise and co-operate with the committee from time to time as the war proceeded and would attend at hearings when the different interests in the matter were asked to present their views.

Dr. Frink is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

Mr. MacGrath is expected to return to St. John on Friday and will then meet Mr. MacGrath and the representatives from the other provinces.

GLORIOUS DAY FOR THE BRITISH ARMS

Stirring Letter Comes From Lieut. J. C. MacCorkindale, M. C.

Officer Who Visited Here Writes of Recent Big Battle on Western Front—'Only Matter of Time Till Hun Must Give In'

Lieut. J. C. MacCorkindale, M. C., of Owen Sound, who visited St. John when he was home on furlough in the latter part of February, and while here made several friends, has written a very interesting letter to a friend in this city. He describes vividly a recent big battle on the western front. He writes:

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

'The battle started at three o'clock in the morning. It was still dark when the guns barked out from the machine gun positions. I was in the front line and we were all thrown off our feet. The noise was simply terrific, and the air was filled with smoke and dust. The ground was covered with the bodies of the fallen and the air was filled with the sound of the dying. It was a glorious day for the British arms.'

Resignation of The Chancellor Reported

Berlin Paper Says so and Adds That Kaiser Withholds Decision—Coalition Government Said to be Coming

Berlin, Switzerland, July 12.—(British Admiralty by wireless press)—The Vossische Zeitung, of Berlin, says the German imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, has resigned. Emperor William, the newspaper adds, has postponed his decision as to whether or not to accept the chancellor's resignation.

Coalition Coming? Amsterdam, July 12.—The Catholic organ, Germania, of Berlin, says that the Reichstag is asked to set forth with unmistakable clearness the German war aims in the sense that Germany has not gone to war with a desire for conquest, but merely to defend its freedom and preserve its territorial possessions. In order to nullify definitely any impression on the part of the Entente that Germany's peace terms would be dictated by the Prussian military caste, the Reichstag is asked to make a declaration of war aims which the entire German people will accept. The Germania adds that the chancellor accepted the idea and that the formation of a coalition ministry is being prepared. Thus, it says, unity between the people and the government will be realized in the near future.

Vienna Desires Report. Amsterdam, July 12.—Emperor William had an interview lasting several hours with Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg yesterday and received his report on the political situation, according to a semi-official despatch from Berlin. The chief feature of the day among the political circles was the receipt of various party leaders yesterday afternoon, says an official despatch from Berlin. (Tempo tutti e due no parano).

Comment on the Victory of the Sinn Feiners in Election. New York, July 12.—An Associated Press cable from London, says:—The Sinn Fein election in the county of East Clare, the third Sinn Fein victory, was reported to parliament late in the afternoon. One opinion seems common among the morning newspapers, which devote considerable space to the victory and to the possibility of the Sinn Fein government in liberating Sinn Fein prisoners and refraining to deal with the situation as a whole. The Sinn Fein victory is a great political success and is a blow to the British government.

Another view is that the election is a preparatory disaster for the Irish Nationalist party, which, many Irish people complain, held the country for years in the dead hand of rigid machine policy. Wild Excitement. Ennis, County Clare, Ireland, July 11.—Scenes of wild excitement followed the announcement of the result of the parliamentary election in East Clare. Professor DeValera, the successful candidate, addressed the crowd and said it could no longer be alleged that the Irish people did not want independence. The Sinn Fein member headed a crowd of Sinn Feiners who marched through the town carrying Republican flags.

Nothing had been heard today about the whereabouts of James Sheridan, a longshoreman, who boarded with Samuel Worth, 283 Gernall street, and who has not been seen or heard of since Friday night. It is feared that since his hat was found on Reid's Point wharf that he has been drowned.

Phelps and Sheridan WEATHER REPORT Issued by Authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis—Pressure is now abnormal low over the continent except along the north Pacific seaboard. Unsettled showery weather prevails from Ontario to Newfoundland. Showers have also occurred in the western provinces. Ottawa Valley—Occasional showers. Friday a few scattered showers, but mostly fair and a little warmer.

Occasional Showers Maritime—Moderate winds, cloudy, occasional showers today and on Friday.

New England—Probably showers tonight and Friday, except fair Friday in Connecticut and West Massachusetts. Gentle, moderate to west winds.

LIKELY CARS AGAIN IN TORONTO TOMORROW Toronto, July 12.—It was freely prophesied this morning that the street cars of the Toronto Railway Company will be running tomorrow. A proposal to hold a mass meeting of the men tonight and it is thought it will be accepted by them. The terms of the proposal are that the Ontario Railway Board take over the operation of the system, that the men go back to work at once at an advance of five cents an hour, pending further developments, the men working for the Ontario Railway Board and that the board then conduct an inquiry into the rights of the dispute, making an award later.

In the meantime everything is outwardly calm.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

MIKE GLOVER DEAD Boxer's Real Name Was Michael J. Cavanaugh Middleboro, Mass., July 12.—Michael J. Cavanaugh, known in the sporting world as Mike Glover, a widely known boxer, died in a hospital here last night after a long illness. He was at one time considered by many sporting writers as the welterweight champion of the country. He was born in Lawrence, 1880.

Fail Again Against French Paris, July 12.—After violent bombardment, the Germans tried several surprise attacks during the night on both banks of the Meuse but were repulsed, according to a statement issued by the French.

FOR MORE PAY AND BETTER CONDITIONS Grand Trunk Carmen Want to be Placed on Same Basis as Those on Other Lines Ottawa, Ont., July 12.—The Grand Trunk Railway carmen have applied for a resolution of conciliation. Its personnel will be announced immediately. The men are asking the same wages and conditions as those who go out to work in the carmen's organization and one instance given in their complaint shows that other roads are paying 82 1/2 cents an hour while the Grand Trunk is paying only from 17 to 23 cents. The men are ninety-five per cent organized.

WILL NOT STAND FOR EXCESSIVE PROFITS ORANGE CELEBRATIONS IN ONTARIO CITIES Toronto, July 12.—Seventy-two Orange lodges of Toronto and several visiting lodges made the usual July 12 March from Queen's Park past the city hall to the exhibition grounds this morning. The weather was threatening, but the rain held off and for part of the day the sun was out. Fears that the level transportation facilities due to the street railway strike would thin the parade were not realized. Banners carried by several lodges, bearing the names of members who had fallen in France, were a feature of the parade which absorbed the attention of on-lookers. A banner carried by the Orange of Derry Lodge bore the names of eight who had died in the war in 1914 to Vimy Ridge in the present year. Kingston, Ont., July 12.—Five thousand Orangemen of Kingston and district are celebrating "the glorious twelfth" here today. There was a big parade to Victoria Park, where speeches were delivered, and a programme of horse and bicycle races at the fair grounds.

THE DOG IN THE MANGER OF THE WORLD FOOD SUPPLY.—Washington Star.