GLADYS HULETTE

The Last of the Carnaby's

A few of the reasons why this is another great picture:
THE STAR—Gladys Hulette is one of the cleverest and most popular actresses of the screen.
THE CAST—Includes William Parke, Jr., Helene Chadwick, J. H. Gilmore.
THE STORY—By Samuel Morse. Photodramatized by George B. Seitz, author of the "Iron Claw," "Blind Man's Luck," "The Haunting of the Hawk," "Perils of Pauline," "Shielding Shadow," "Pearl of the Army," etc. It has great dramatic strength with tense situations, nevertheless, it furnishes Miss Hulette with a part in which she appears at her best—one of innocence, sweetness and youth.

"SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE"

It Has Made All America Laugh

Wild freaks of action! Weird tangle of circumstances! Sudden and dynamic charges of humor! These elements, and considerably more, make George M. Cohan's new Artcraft picture, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," the most novel film of the year. When it was produced on the stage by George M. it defied the critics and won their most favorable reviews. It bewildered the audience and left them proclaiming it the most remarkable farce ever staged.

3 ACTS OF KEITH VAUDEVILLE

THE CECILE TRIO—Lady and two gentlemen in the merriest mix-up imaginable. Singing, talking, dancing, and acrobatics.
CONNORS & HUYCK—A drowsy, witty, Broadway offering in singing, talking, and dancing. Refined and laughable.
BICKNELL—The world's greatest clay modeler. An artist of international repute in moulded portraiture.

SOMETHING EXTRA SPECIAL

For Wed. and Thurs.

"TREASON"

A tremendous picture that for real heart-interest for tense scenes that will stir the emotions to their depths; for convincing and faithful pictures of modern warfare—will, perhaps, never be surpassed. Featuring that brilliant young BLUEBIRD star, Allen Holubar; beautiful Lois Wilson and stalwart Jos. Girard, it presents a story that will get your sympathy at the very start and hold it.

Hertzog May Become Aviator.

New York, Nov. 26.—Charles L. Hertzog, second baseman of the Giants, may be in the aviation service of the United States by spring. Hertzog is now at an army flying camp near Salt Lake City, Utah. It is believed that he is thinking seriously of abandoning baseball for the air service of his country.
 If Hertzog did not have a wife and family he would be flying for the government now. He took the physical examination for the aviation corps last spring and passed.

Diamond Sparkles.

Eddie Plank's major league record from 1901 to 1917, inclusive, shows that he won 320 games and lost 190. With Yarnville lost to the Boston Braves, George Stallings will have to do some hustling to secure even an ordinary thortstop to fill the Rabbit's place.
