ATESEST IS TURNING O WORLD'S SERIES

Three Games Played Yester-day—Only One Scheduled For Today.

New York, Oct. 2.-The 1923 base New York, Oct. 2.—The 1923 base-ball season almost passed out yesterday. Only three games were played, and only one is scheduled for today, but the fans have plenty to talk about with the world's series only a little way off. The dope is still all with the Yankees, although the world's champions are getting enough credit for their performances to keep the argument hot.

their performances to keep the argument hot.

In the three games that were played, all in the American League, Cleveland won, 13 to 5, in St. Louls; Washington lost, 4 to 3, in Philadelphia; and Detroit won, 16 to 5, in Chicago.

In Baltimore, the Orioles, five times winners of the International League peanant, defeated the Yankees in the second game of a three-game series, 4 to 0. Babe Ruth was forced to retire after the first inning to give his injured ankle a rest. He didn't tire it running around the bases.

HEALTH BOARD

The Board of Health in monthly ession yesterday, ordered proceedings to be taken against two milk dealers who were not complying with the regulation and against one vendor, who was bringing milk into the city, in cans not properly sealed. They ordered that a house in West St. John be closed, unless within fifteen days the owner had tollets installed.

The reports presented were carefully considered. Dr. H. L. Abrahamson, in his report of his examination of the city water supply, showed that conditions were satisfactory and in view of the drought this season, this report was especially gratifying.

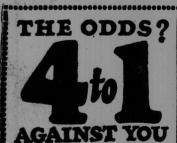

Dr. T. Fred Johnston, dairy and food inspector, reported on his visits to the slaughter houses. In all thirty-one visits were made to the two slaughter houses and conditions were found to be satisfactory. The number of animals slaughtered was 3071. The month had been exceptionally busy.

Miss Alice Hegan, in her report on the anti-tuberculosis work, told of 817 patients formerly registered and twenty-three new patients. In all 340 visits were made by the nurses. Twenty-six of the patients were discharged as nontubercular and five were receiving free milk.

Miss Wallace was appointed assistant

Miss Wallace was appointed assistant nurse for the medical school inspector during the absence of Mrs. Armstrong, who has been granted a month's leave.

Edmund Berube of St. Jacques, near Edmundston, was thrown from his carriage over a fence and into a field on Sunday night when the wagon in which he was driving was struck by an automobile driven by Dr. Fred Hebert of Edmundston. Mr. Berube's hand was badly cut but otherwise he escaped injury. The wagon was smashed to bits and the horse so badly cut that it had to be shot. The occupants of the car were uninjured.

Our sincerest thanks to each and every one who took part. So excellent were hundreds of reports which must go unrecognized that we regret there weren't prizes for all; but we want the authors to know that none will go unappreciated. And, as dozens of people put it; "whether I get a prize in this Contest or not, Fleischmann's Yeast has given me the biggest prize already—the prize of perfect health!" READ THESE EXTRACTS FROM PRIZE-WINNING REPORTS:

"Constipation had become chronic," writes Mrs. Allan Ramsey. "As quickly as my system got accustomed to one remedy, I'd have to hunt a successor because it ceased to 'work'." Then she started eating Fleischmann's Yeast. "In two months my internal economy was operating like a well-oiled motor. Today my complexion is clear, I no longer catch cold at the slightest provocation, and I have nome of the old-time drowsy dullness that accompanies constination."

"The age of miracles is still here," asserts a New England lawyer, Ellery H. Clark, "Inside of a fortnight after beginning the Yeast treatment, I noticed a distinct improvement in my health; in a month I was a 'come-back'—literally a new man. Within a year I had regained the lost twenty

"When I began eating Fleischmann's Yeast," says a western lumberman, Wesley Ray, "I weighed 135 pounds. Now I weigh 183. But it isn't the added weight I want to tell you about—it's the different feeling. Before I began Yeast I felt like I imagine an old broken-down draft horse feels.

"Years of strong medicines had not only deprived me of health but had ruined my teeth," writes Mrs. B. M. Moore, a former trained nurse. "I first tried Fleischmann's Yeast in a glass of milk, then I took three cakes a day, and soon realized I had never been sick—I had been starved. Fleischmann's Yeast changed my life. Now I weigh 123 and still gaining. Husband has a 'new wife' and the children a happy, patient mother."

"Picture a girl of twenty," says Mrs. Vermet, of Montreal, "with a face, head, and neck covered with sores. You can understand I was cynical at first about Yeast. But three months later you'd never have known that I ever had been disfigured. I feel like standing on a mountain top and telling the world about it!"

Now I feel like a 2-year old colt."

"I didn't mind getting gray, but oh! how I hated to be fat," writes Mrs. Florence A. Locke, "Now I can stoop without puffing and am as slim as when a girl. Since taking Fleischmann's Yeast, some folks say I am the busiest woman in town. I know I am the happiest!"
