

GIRLS' COUNCIL OF Y. W. C. A. FORMED

Organization to be Completed at Another Meeting This Week.

A new society was called into being last night when it was decided to form a Y. W. C. A. Girls' Council, composed of the leaders of the girls' activities and others interested in girls' welfare. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. A. W. Eatey, vice-president of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Pauline Baird, Miss Gwen Richards, Miss Julia Pirie, Miss Ethel Shaw, Miss Edna Hunt, Miss Lucy Smith, Miss Stella Earle, Miss Caswell, Miss Gladys Johnson, Miss Jean Dearborn and Miss Joan Andrews. Election of officers and the organization meeting will take place at a supper gathering at the cafeteria Thursday night. The aims of the new society are to bring co-operation in the various departments of girls' activities at the Y. W. C. A. and to arrange for a winter programme to interest all departments. One suggestion which was favored by the meeting was a series of addresses for the girls groups. These, it was suggested, should be given by experts in the various subjects, including music, health, cooking, sewing, nursing, elementary first aid and literary subjects. It was the general feeling that the new society would attain excellent results.

Her Quinsy Yields To Vicks

The Direct Action of A Vaporizing Salve Is Best

Mr. Joseph Hiley, of 199 West Mill Street, Brantford, Ont., says: "My wife has suffered with quinsy for years, but Vicks VapoRub must have been proved to her for she got through the winter without a single attack. We sent part of a jar to a neighbor, whose boy was very sick with cold or grip. He also got relief. Vicks surely should be in every home."

They used to treat cold troubles externally with tallow, goose grease and camphor. Recently, internal dosing has been the habit and people naturally doubt the value of a salve. For this reason, Canadian druggists introduced Vicks VapoRub, the vaporizing salve for all cold troubles, by giving away dozens of samples to responsible families and every jar sold was on 30-day trial.

The above report is just one of the great many received by the Vicks VapoRub Company. With such endorsement and a positive money-back guarantee, every household ought to have Vicks a thorough trial as the home remedy for croup, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, catarrh, sinusitis, croup, hoarseness, and sore.

At all drug stores, 50c a jar. For a free test size package, write Vicks Chemical Co., 844 St. Paul St., W. Montreal, P. Q.

Though Vicks is new in Canada it has a remarkable sale in the States. Over 17 million jars used yearly.

MONTREAL HARBOR REPORT.
Montreal, Jan. 7.—Ships to the number of 6,691 arrived at Montreal in 1923 as against 6,988 in 1922, and 8,541 in 1921.

Of these in 1923, 998 were from transatlantic ports, against 969 in 1922 and 907 in 1921. 190 from Maritime ports against 225 in 1922 and 157 in 1921. Flags of 17 foreign nations were seen in the harbor in 1923, including one German vessel, the first since 1914.

While my new premises are being remodelled I will carry on business at 191 Union street (apartments)—K. Epstein, optician. 1-4 ft.

SUFFERED FROM SEVERE PIMPLES

On Face. Caused Intense Itching, Cuticura Heals.

"I suffered great annoyance from severe pimples on my face, which I attributed to the use of poor soap. The pimples were hard, red and itchy, large, and feasted. They were scattered all over my face and caused intense itching and burning. My face looked unattractive. This condition lasted about two months."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some. I could see an improvement, and in two months I was healed." (Signed) Miss H. P. McArthur, Misses, Prince Edward Island.

"Beautiful your skin by daily use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Tablets. Cuticura Soap is the best, but every day use the Ointment. Cuticura Soap shines without rinsing."

DOES NOT FAVOR ENGLISH SYSTEM

Boxing Presents Difficulties There as Well as in New York.

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Sports Editor.)
New York, Jan. 7.—(United Press)—New York, yelping about bad decisions, poor fights, uneven matches, faulty rules and various other ills of the boxing business, hears it frequently suggested: "Why not do as the English do?"

Because no yelps are at the radio from the other side, it is erroneously believed that in England, where the sport is pictured as being perfectly supervised and conducted, boxing is a well-behaved and well-acting old man.

From the following letter, appearing in a recent issue of "Sporting Life" (London) it may be gathered that while the difficulties there may be minor, they are taken very seriously: "To the Editor:—

"Sir: I quite agree that the referee's place is outside the ropes, but obviously there is great temptation to get inside."

"The M. C.'s request that there should be 'silence during the rounds' has become a dead letter in all the bigger halls, such as Olympia, Albert, and Holland Park. Even the great referee, Jack Angus, is neither a telephone nor a fog-horn, and I fail to see how he could make himself heard in the ring when the bulk of the spectators lose their heads and yell in excitement."

"Should a conscientious referee refuse and refuse to act if the onlookers refused to behave themselves another would be found to take his place."

"It must be recollected that a large percentage of pugs are ornamented with cauliflower ears and have impaired hearing, so unless silence reigns at the order 'Stop,' one combatant might drop his hands whilst the other carried on with disastrous results to his opponent."

"A claim for a foul is, at times, a problem to the referee difficult to solve."

"As an illustration, a man stopped boxing and claimed a foul—i.e., as referee, was watching every move with the keenest scrutiny, and will credit the judges with being equally on the alert. None of us saw a foul, of course, the claim was not allowed, and the other man was proclaimed winner."

"Shortly afterwards this winner, in the most sportsmanlike and honorable manner, volunteered the statement: 'I don't want to say that I did accidentally foul him with my knee.'"

"It might have been a very serious blow and left no mark, but enough to put a man temporarily out of action."

"Believing my decision to have been erratic, I saved my conscience by making the loser a present, with which he was completely satisfied. Luckily it was only a minor event, and a challenge to a return match may have been issued."

"CLAUDE CHAMPION DE CRESPIGNY."

American referees probably would not care to see the custom introduced in this country of giving prizes as 'salve' to defeated boxers.

Along the general theme of "trouble at home," American tennis officials feel they have a heavy obligation to curb the literary (for profit) activities of American tennis stars and to keep their eye peeled for other infractions of the tennis amateur code.

American officials, however, have no problem of handling players who engage in "open tournaments," and from the following London clipping, this problem is a big one, and perhaps a funny one.

"The question of entering open tournaments under assumed names is one that needs more legislation, in our opinion. The new law governing the same mischievous habit still leaves it optional for players to adopt ridiculous noms-de-guerre, such as 'Goliath,' 'Billy Bimbo' and 'Peter Porker,' but they cannot use another one in the same year without the permission of the Council."

"The Badminton Association forbids absolutely the use of assumed names in open tournament, and the passing of the same rule by the Lawn Tennis Association would not be at all a bad thing for the game. It might deter a few people from entering, but it would certainly decrease the number of 'grandfathers' deaths.'"

At its annual meeting the British Lawn Tennis Association committed itself on "open competition," with the following resolution: "No player who shall enter for any event at an open meeting under an assumed name shall enter at that or any other open meeting during the same, or even under a different or assumed name, without the permission of the Council. Particulars of assumed names, together with the names of the players concerned, shall be forwarded by the secretary of every open meeting in writing to the secretary of the Lawn Tennis Association."

This resolution caused the following editorial comment to be printed: "We have never liked assumed names in sport, and every year we dislike them more. The Lawn Tennis Association adopted a milk-and-water attitude to the ever-growing practice of entering for a competition and playing publicly for a week or fortnight under a name like 'R. Dash,' 'M. Potts,' 'A. Noodle,' or something equally ridiculous. The L. T. A. says: 'You may have one assumed name in one season, but not two.' But why one? Are the L. T. A. following in the illegal footsteps of the International Rugby Board, who have held that you can be a 2-pound amateur—but not a 2-guinea one?"

The closing week of the year found the metal working industry in a cheerful mood, because the last few weeks have shown good business in most cases, and the outlook for the future is decidedly bright. There is increased evidence that consumers are abandoning ideas of lower prices in the near future, although those who have not solid backing in well-filled order books are not entering the market to any extent. The advent of new sales tax regulations failed to hurry these buyers into committing themselves very heavily. Pig iron lookings have been very limited and for carload lots only, at unchanged prices. The quotation on No. 1 foundry and malleable iron at Montreal is $29.50 and at Toronto, $29.15. It is apparent that buyers desire to keep their stocks as low as possible, at least until inventory is taken.

Bar orders are being received by mills sparingly, and only for quick shipment. Finished steel sales generally are somewhat improved, although prices are not altered to any appreciable extent. More interest is being displayed in structural materials for future delivery.

Sheet sales are good and one large importing interest is said to have disposed of its entire stock available for Canadian distribution for the first half of 1924.

A general feeling is apparent amongst merchants and manufacturers that the iron and steel trade will show an improvement soon after the turn of the year, particularly in the case of structural materials. Refinements served by ladies in costume. Admission 25c.

THREW LIQUOR ON STOVE.
Richard McNulty nearly caused a fire yesterday afternoon when he tried to get rid of some liquor which he had been looking. The man was in the B. C. Cafe and when the inspectors entered the building he threw a bottle on the stove and it burst into flames. Another bottle was found and was used as evidence when the case came before the court. He was fined $200.

Are You a Tired Out Housewife?

Many people do not realize that the most exhausting of all work is housework. Many a woman, in winter, finds her strength gone, her nerves unstrung and is weak, worn out and run down with pale, thin, watery blood from the strain of housework.

In such cases, what you need is something to put more iron into your blood. Nuxated Iron contains iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, and like the iron in your blood. You will be astonished at how much better you feel often in even a few days.

Try taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks, and you will see color come back to your lips and cheeks, you will not be so easily upset by stress, and best of all, you will find that you have new strength and energy and endurance for your daily tasks. At all good druggists.
