CHICAGO JURIST AVERS ANARCHY RAMPANT IN CITY

Conditions Prevail Paralleling Those Existing During the Haymarket Riots.

Chicago, May 16.—Discussing the ranging grip certain labor leaders have on the throat of Chicago, Chief Justice Justice said: "A man must be blind not to see here is a conspiracy. We are in a state of anarchy that approaches in intensity the condition that existed during the Haymarket riots. I went through the trial of the anarchists and I know that at that time the community was fighting for its life, just as the community is now fighting for its life."

"That fairly expresses conditions in Chicago today, where a little coterie of convicts, using union labor as a weapon, are dictating to the citizens what they may eat and wear, forbidding the burial of the dead, except under the guidance of the Labor Party; and, thereby placing tens of thousands of tenants at the mercy of greedy landlords; using bombs to destroy any and all that do not meet their approval; murdering anyone who attempts to interfere with their movements."

CHILD WELFARE.

In an address in Toronto last week, stressing the importance of pre-natal care, Dr. Alan Brown urged that it should be the aim of every community to furnish overnight for mothers before confinement, stating that in Toronto every year, out of 1,700 births, approximately 500 are still-borns. In addition, many children were lost during the first and second week after birth. Pre-natal care was the one solution to this problem, he believed.

Sarnia, May 17.—For the next six months Camille Conserre, an erstwhile resident of Petroska, has leisure enough to review his misdemeanors, which in retrospect, the wife of his landlord, Marie Varconter, the wife of his landlord, is helping himself to the hard earned savings of the injured husband and, acting, penning a letter to the victim, dividing him to "go back to Belgium and make the best of it."

BETTER THAN HARD COAL.

Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whistlers on stove covers or pipes and does not mat or clog when burning, is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to last on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

WORK CURE A BENEFIT TO MANY

Increasing Service as a Therapeutic Agent is New York Hospital Experience.

(New York Times.)

The use of work as a therapeutic agent is steadily increasing in the hospitals. Dr. John W. Brannan, president of the board of trustees of Bellevue and allied hospitals, said at the fifteenth annual meeting of the New York State Charities Aid Association last week.

Occupational therapy, or "work cure," had in many cases lessened by a third the length of time which patients have to remain in hospitals, Dr. Brannan added.

"By keeping the minds and hands of the patients occupied, not only are long hours shortened, but cures are actually hastened, according to Dr. Brannan. He said that twenty-three per cent. of all the patients in Bellevue Hospital were receiving instruction in the wards and workshops and that last year 8,168 patients were taught."

"In my opinion," he said, "the introduction of occupational therapy into Bellevue is the most important event in the history of the hospital since social service was introduced fifteen years ago."

Occupational therapy was established in Bellevue by the New York City Visiting Committee of the State Charities Aid Association, which seeks funds to employ skilled teachers. Dr. Brannan said that experience with the "work cure" in the psychopathic wards had demonstrated that it promotes the recovery of a large number of mental cases which formerly would have been committed to state hospitals for long periods. In the neurological wards the occupations also have demonstrated their therapeutic value, as well as improving the morale of patients. In the surgical wards, the surgeons praise the effect of the exercises in restoring the use of stiffened joints and flabby muscles.

Dr. Brannan feels that the results at Bellevue and elsewhere have demonstrated the practical value of occupational therapy in hospitals generally and that its extension should be promoted widely throughout the state.

In addition, many children were lost during the first and second week after birth. Pre-natal care was the one solution to this problem, he believed.

With regard to malnutrition, the speaker said that between twenty-six and fifty-eight per cent. of the children graduating were physically unfit, due to improper nourishment. To combat this situation, there must be full co-operation between the child, the nurse, the doctor
