TURF.

Equals Track Record.
The Fredericton track record 2:11 1/4 for trotters was equalled yesterday by Bill Sharon, who established the record earlier in the season. Peter Setzer won the 2:14 class trot and pace; Touz, a St. John entry, which was heavily backed to win, finished second. The 2:20 trot furnished the excitement of the day, going six heats. The summary of the events follows:—

New World Record.
A new world's record for three-year-old pacing colts was established at the Grand Circuit meet at Columbus yesterday by Frisco June, who stepped the third heat of the horse review futurity in 2:03 1/4. Draveston won the 2:18 class pace, first division, in straight heats, best time 2:04 1/4. Loyal W. won the second division of the same event in straight heats, best time 2:05 1/4. Margaret Dillon won the 2:11 class pace, two out of four heats, best time 2:01 1/4, which is a new record for the event.

Races at Cherryfield.
Over 8,000 people witnessed the races at Cherryfield, Me., yesterday. The 2:22 class mixed went to Saddle Man in straight heats, best time 2:21 1/4. The 2:30 class was won by Miss Peter Lincoln in straight heats, best time 2:29 1/4. The 2:40 class mixed was won by Nutola in straight heats, best time 2:29 1/4.

WRESTLING.
Montreal, Sept. 22.—As the result of an injury to Tom Draak's shoulder, the wrestling match between him and Salvatore Chevalier, of France, at the arena tonight came to an abrupt close, after fifty-four minutes. At the time of the accident both men were attempting to hold each other when the side of the ring they rolled over to the condors beneath, Chevalier on top of Draak. The latter gamely continued but Chevalier hit his down within a minute after and easily worked a scissors hold that brought his shoulder to the mat.

THE RING.
Halifax, N. S., Sept. 22.—Joe Marks, Philadelphia, light weight, was given the referee's decision over Harry Jones, a local boxer, in a 15-round bout here tonight. The crowd thought Jones had the better of it and jeered the decision.

JOE LANNON DEAD.
Joe Lannon, a former South Boston heavyweight, died in Dorchester, Mass., on Tuesday morning of Bright's disease. He was born in Prince Edward Island on March 1, 1865. His first essay in the sparring line was in 1884, when he beat Neil Doherty in three rounds at Walpole.

Lannon subsequently bested Jim Harvey and Matt Cunningham. He fought a four-round draw with Denny Kellher in June 1888, and later beat Ed McKeown of St. Paul in four rounds.

Lannon met his first defeat at the hands of Pat Killen, champion heavy-weight of the Northwest. The battle lasted nine rounds, and Joe was knocked out.

After this Lannon fought a draw of eight rounds with Kellher, whipped Frank Heald in six rounds, whipped Jack Loughlin in six rounds, and was whipped by Jake Kilrain in 11 rounds. This was in February 1889.

In August, 1887, Grady, the "unknown," fell in seven rounds before Lannon. During blizzard week, 1888, Joe fought Jim Fell in New York. The fight was very short, not decisive, but in Lannon's favor.

Jim Glynn of Brooklyn fought him at Boston, Sept. 17, 1888, and was defeated in five rounds. Jack Ashton was his next opponent. They fought at Providence, March 30, 1889, and Lannon was forced to lower his colors to him.

Lannon met Jim Corbett in New York Feb. 16, 1892. Corbett agreed to best him in three rounds and was successful.

Another notable battle fought by Lannon was with George Godfrey. He traveled with John L. Sullivan as the latter's sparring partner. He retired from the game many years ago and opened a hotel at Nantasket Beach. When that was burned down in 1895 he went into the liquor business. He leaves a wife and several children.

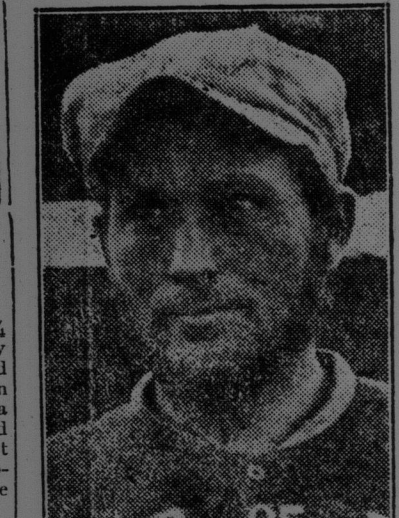

There is nothing more delightfully refreshing for the midday lunch than PURITY ICE CREAM. Delicate in flavor, smooth as velvet, served with crushed fruit, or sauce or plain. It is wholesome as well as temptingly delicious.

HOUSE OF DAVID BASEBALL TEAM IN TORONTO

The team having steadfastly refused to be photographed in a group, the British & Colonial Press photographer succeeded in obtaining this picture of Mooney the great pitcher of the aggregation. Mooney has been sought many times by Major League teams and was offered $35,000 for one season but he turned it down preferring to stay in Benton Harbor. He is regarded by experts as the greatest pitcher in the game. Those to whom he belongs never shave and wear their hair flowing over their shoulders. The ball players tuck their hair under their caps when playing.

BROOKLYN HOLDS FIVE GAME LEAD

Double-Header Loss Eliminates Cincinnati

No Games Yesterday in the American League — Home Run Drive Robs Recruit of Shut-Out Victory.

New York, Sept. 23.—Brooklyn retained its five game lead in the National League pennant race by defeating Boston, while New York was taking the final game from Chicago Cubs. Cincinnati was eliminated by losing a double-header at Pittsburgh. The Braves more games to play, one with Boston, five with New York. The Giants have eight more games.

No games were played yesterday in the American League and the standing continues with Cleveland one and a half games ahead of Chicago and the latter the same distance ahead of New York.

National League.
Brooklyn, Sept. 23.—Brooklyn drove another nail in the National League pennant yesterday by beating Boston 3 to 1. Smith kept the six hits well scattered, a missed third strike saving the Braves from a shut-out. The Dodgers bunched hits for runs in the third and fifth, while Knott connected for a home run into the left field bleachers with two out, after he was on the count of 2 and 3 in the eighth inning.

New York, Sept. 23.—New York defeated Chicago yesterday 7 to 2 in the Cubs' last game here this season. Iyer and Bailey were batted hard while Douglas steamed after the second inning. Benoit, with a double and three singles, and Snyder with two doubles, led in the New York hitting. Tyler lasted two innings and Bailey was taken out in the fourth with one out after a double and three singles had netted New York two runs.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Stengel's home run over the right field wall with Williams on base in the ninth saved Philadelphia from a shutout at the hands of Lyons, a St. Louis recruit pitcher, the visitors winning 4 to 2. Lyons also drove in his team's first run.

Pittsburg, Sept. 23.—Pittsburg won a double-header here yesterday from Cincinnati, 2 to 0 and 3 to 1. Adams out-pitched Luque in the first game. He kept the visitors from scoring. Tinsley hitting by Barnhardt and Tierney, recruit players, won the second game for the home team.

BALL PLAYING AS A PROFESSION

Calls for Instant Decision, Unerring Judgment and Perfect Co-ordination of Mind and Body.

(Haverhill Gazette.)

In a technical journal there has been discussion recently as to which is the most "skilled" of the trades. Each trade has its able exponents, but no one has yet come forward to say a word for the ball player. Indeed, what other trade calls so continuously for instant decision, unerring judgment and such perfect co-ordination of mind and body? To the thoughtful fan a baseball game is a psychological study; a marvelous demonstration of the specialized brain in perfect operation. Fans applaud a triple play, even if achieved by the opposing team, because it is an admirable exhibition of several minds thinking together, making unerring decisions on the instant and doing the right thing at the right time. The carpenter, bricklayer and machinist have time to reflect as to whether one method of operation is better than another. But for the ball player, thought and action must so co-ordinate as to seem simultaneous. He dare not stop to think, so he thinks and acts at the same moment. At least, there is no noticeable time-lapse between the thought and the act. He dare not unerringly, as are his errors. He cannot correct his mistakes as can other skilled tradesmen and his one error may boot the game. He is, therefore, a man of open mind and open action upon, as subject to the instant review of his boss, the general public. For him there is no covering up of mistakes in the hope that the boss will not find them out. All of which calls for such constant mental and physical alertness as is required in no other trade, business or profession, except, perhaps, that of the doctor when he is performing an emergency operation. A noted lawyer once said that he would make an important case to try he would work out several difficult problems in mathematics before going to court in order to timber up his mind. Several innings of snappy baseball played in the morning before the day's work would serve the same purpose.

WORK UNDER WAY AT ST. PETER'S PARK

Engineer Laying Out Lines Preparatory to Excavation, etc. — Will Have a Skating Rink.

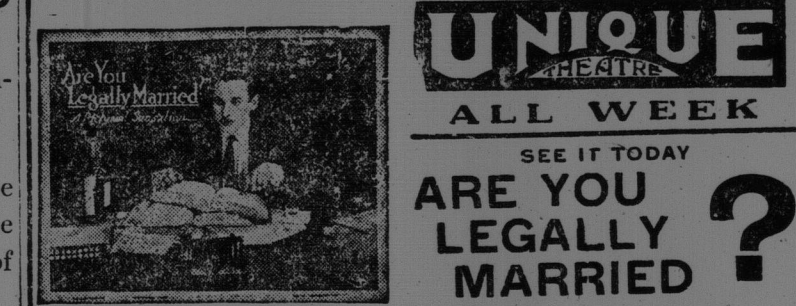

An engineer has been employed all week at St. Peter's ball park laying out lines preparatory to the letting of contracts for removal of the bleachers, excavation of rock, filling in and leveling the playing field and in leveling the make this one of the best ball park and athletic fields in the province.

During the winter months it is proposed to have a large square rink for hockey playing and pleasure skating. Electric lights will be installed and dressing rooms will be built under the grand stand. Definite action regarding the rink will be taken later in the season after the annual reunion of St. Peter's Y. M. A.

TO BE ONE OF GREAT CHURCHES OF WORLD

Laying of Cornerstone by Catholic Prelate in Washington — Cost of Memorial Shrine $3,000,000.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Cardinal Gibbons and other prelates are here for the laying of the cornerstone of the Monumental National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, which is to be erected at a cost of $3,000,000 at the Catholic University of America as a memorial to American soldiers and sailors who died in the war and as a monument to Mary, mother of Jesus. The ceremony will be today.

It will cost $1,000,000 to build the sanctuary alone, and a bell tower almost as high as the Washington Monument, will cost more than that sum. Several thousand Catholic leaders from all parts of the country are here for the services. Bishop Thomas J. McNicholas, O. P. C. D., Bishop of Duluth, Rector of the Catholic University will speak and the sermon will be delivered by the Right Rev. John T. McNicholas, O. P. C. D., Bishop of Duluth.

Archbishop Dennis J. Dougherty of Philadelphia. The ceremonies will end on Friday with a solemn mass for American soldiers, living and dead. It is planned to make the shrine one of the great churches of the world. The style employed will be Romanesque. The length of the building will be 420 feet. A dome 254 feet in exterior height will cover the central part of the structure. The main transept will be 200 feet wide. The bell-tower will be 385 feet in height. A congregation of more than 3,000 will be accommodated in the finished edifice.

In the center of the crypt, which will accommodate 1,500 persons, will be placed an exact copy of the column of the Immaculate Conception in the Piazza del Popolo, erected by Pope Pius IX. to commemorate the definition of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception.

Among those who accepted invitations to attend the cornerstone laying are the Spanish, Argentine, Brazilian and Chilean Ambassadors, the Cuban, Polish, Serbian and Venezuelan Ministers and the Charges d'Affaires of Belgium, Bolivia, Colombia, Czechoslovakia, Finland, France, Greece, the Netherlands, Panama, Rumania, Switzerland.

TANKS WILL CLEAR PARIS SNOWDRIFTS

French Alpine Roadways Also to Be Opened by Metal Monsters — Joy Rides on Programme.

Paris, Sept. 23.—Although the poet's dream of turning swords into ploughshares apparently is not to be realized, the French government has decided to utilize the principle of utilization of military material for more peaceful purposes, and this winter will see the French tanks, which so surprised the Germans on more than one memorable occasion, being used as snow sweepers.

The tanks were tried out recently in the French Alps, where it was found even the most difficult roads were easily negotiated by the climbing monsters. In the past certain important mountain highways were closed throughout the winter season because the expense of clearing a path sufficiently wide for ordinary traffic was prohibitive. By attaching front and side spurs, however, several miles of roadway, ten feet wide can be cleared in a few hours, the tanks plunging into the deepest drifts and cutting their way through with the ease of an express train in a January blizzard.

The French government has several hundred of these otherwise useless machines, and is considering the possibility of using them throughout the winter resort areas, as special attractions for mountain "joy rides," as well as snow clearing, although it is probable that a few will be assigned to the Paris district to clear the streets if the perennial threatened "hard winter" really arrives.

Liquor in U. S.
Washington, Sept. 23.—Consumption of wines and liquors in the United States in 1919 was less per capita than in any year since 1870, according to estimates today of the department of commerce. In 1870 the amount was 7.70 gallons per capita, rising to 22.79 gallons in both 1907 and 1911 and falling to 9.17 gallons last year.

Consumption in 1919 totaled 992,394,720 gallons, compared with 1,701,827,271 gallons, or 16.95 gallons per capita in 1918.

Clemenceau Away.
Marseilles, Sept. 23.—Former Premier Clemenceau called yesterday on the steamer Cordillere for India to spend several weeks hunting in the Himalayas.

Richard Harding Davis' Enrapturing Romance

"SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE"

A Favorite Novel in Wonderful Movies

YOU WERE THRILLED AND HELD SPELLBOUND, no doubt, when you read Richard Harding Davis' "Soldiers of Fortune."

It carried you to the extreme outposts of civilization and made you eye-witness to the exciting and venturesome experiences of Clay, the Engineer. You read page after page, hanging on breathlessly to the thread of the story, eager to know the outcome. Allan Dwan, the noted photodramatist and director, produced "Soldiers of Fortune" for the silent stage. In offering the story as a photoplay, Mr. Dwan has been able to present it in more vivid colors and with much broader strokes than the limitations of the spoken drama or cold type would permit.

He has added to the delight of the tale by bringing it up to the present time, but adhering closely to the story so as to present all the romantic charm, the virile action and the climactic situations with which the story abounds.
