RIVOLI COMPANY DRAWS FULL HOUSE

Change of Bill Draws Capacity Audience to Queen Square Theatre—Musical Comedy Proves Popular.

Another stellar success was scored last night by the Rivoli Musical Comedy and Comic Opera Company, when an audience which taxed the capacity of the Queen Square theatre, greeted with sustained applause the many sparkling musical gems of that comedy "All Fall In." The comedy, which contains many popular local hits and really humorous repartee, is marked by several of the latest successes of the prevailing Broadway shows. The plot deals with the disposition of two millions of dollars to an heir of an estate who has never fallen under the lure of the demon love and the action is well sustained through two acts and three scenes.

Among the musical hits of the production are the duet "I'd Be Happy Anywhere With You," by Miss Bell Flower and H. Grady Miller; "I'm a Dancing Teacher," by Harold Goudey; "Rolling Down to Rio," a swinging southern melody that develops all the richness and charm of Mr. Miller's robust baritone; "They Always Follow me Around," by William Quimby and chorus. Mr. Quimby's voice, a rich, clear and resonant tenor, was heard in several other numbers with Miss Elizabeth Teter, including "When I Discovered You" and "Well Settle Down in a One Horse Town." The audience did not seem to get enough of the California Four, though this harmonious quartet was heard in "Kitty Kelly" and "Tinkle Toe." This ensemble includes some talented vocalists and Arthur K. Munde, the producer of the show, is being complimented by his friends on the Class of clean, wholesome comedies which are being staged.

Trites-Lockwood.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood, Moncton, on Wednesday evening, their daughter, Miss Hilda, was married to Wilfred Roy Trites, son of Jacob A. Trites.
