Miller Huggins could spitcher's offer management would insist on Rudolph joining the team or remaining idle.

The star pitcher, on the other hand, was emphatic in declaring that he had not proposed to accept the terms offered by Haughton, no matter if he had to stay out of the game all season. Rudolph refused to say where he would go in the event of Boston's accepting his offer, but it was intimated that such a release would be followed immediately by Rudolph's appearance in a Highlander uniform.
