GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SNAPPY VAUDEVILLE AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Where will we go tonight? There is only one answer to that question—the Opera House, of course, and enjoy a real good entertainment of five first-class vaudeville features and the serial picture drama, "Vengeance and the Woman." Good music, dancing, acrobatic tumbling, fascinating athletic pictures from old colored rags, dialect sketches, crisp comedy repartee, everything that goes to make up a fast morning show. Two complete performances tonight, at 7:30 and 9—every afternoon at 2:30. Some little popular pieces.

BIG VAUDEVILLE AT GEM TONIGHT

Tonight at 7:15 and 8:45 at the Gem Vaudeville and picture program of outstanding merit. Three attractive acts, including one double and three triple—music, dancing, gymnastics, comedy, all the elements of a big-time show. Also Pathé News weekly and the inimitable Toto, an acrobatic clown in a corking comedy picture, "Pares, Please!" Come tonight! It's good.

THE PRICE OF BERRIES

In one stall in the market this morning strawberries were twenty cents a box, in another two boxes for twenty-five cents. At one store the price was presented in cents and at others the price was lower. The great range in price caused much comment on the part of buyers.

THE WAR ANNIVERSARY

A meeting of the citizens of the city was held this morning to discuss plans for the observance of the anniversary of the day on which Great Britain entered the world war. It was decided that a public prayer service should be held on Monday, August 5, as the anniversary falls on Sunday. The co-operation of the provincial and city authorities has been promised and the prospects point to an impressive service worthy of the occasion. A sub-committee was appointed to arrange for the place of meeting, the hour of service, which will be during the day, and other details.

THE FINES IN COURT

Elliott Hotel, St. John, July 3, 1918. To the Hon. Mr. Justice: The defendant in St. John, taken to the lockup, and next day fined $20 or thirty days in jail, then the fine allowed to stand? There must have been thousands of cases like that in the thirty years I have been here. We pay taxes and have policemen on duty day and night. They see some offences of the law, but they do not stand? Why not let them roll into the city treasury to help pay the cost of police force and courts?

NOT GUILTY OF USE OF SEDITIOUS LANGUAGE

Samia, Ont., July 3.—David Dawson was honorably discharged yesterday when charged with saying, "This government is getting more like Germany every day." The words were uttered in a ticket office when he and his wife went to buy tickets and were asked for certificates. A commercial traveler, the defendant, Dawson, was thinking he said he would rather live in Germany, and accused Dawson of saying, "The evidence shows Dawson to have two sons overseas. He did not say using the terms alleged, but said that he used them with no wrong intentions."

LONDON REJOICES AT NEWS OF MANY AMERICANS CROSSING

London, July 3.—United States Secretary of War Baker's letter to President Wilson, announcing that more than a million American soldiers had left the United States for France, was published in the early editions of the London afternoon newspapers under great headlines. The statement was featured in connection with the success of the American troops in capturing the town of Ypres on the Marne front.

WRITING EXAMS FOR POST AS FOREST RANGER

Fredrickton, N. B., July 3.—The examinations for the position of forest ranger were begun this morning. Fifteen candidates, of whom two are returned soldiers, are writing here. On July 9 and 10 examinations will be held in Newcastle.

BOLSHEVSKI COMMISSIONER IS MURDERED; SYMPTOM OF GROWING OPPOSITION

London, July 3.—The murder of M. Volodarsky, Bolsheviki commissioner for press affairs, in Petrograd on June 21, is very significant as a symptom of the growing discontent among the workers and the opposition political parties, says the Petrograd correspondent of the Times under date of June 28. The Bolsheviki threaten vengeance and party passions are running high among them.

MONTRÉAL AND THE M. S. A.

Montréal, July 3.—It was said at military headquarters here yesterday that the returns of men recruiting for overseas service under the M. S. A. were much less than had been expected, especially since the discussion arising after the report of the staff of the Ontario Government Hospital at Orpington, England, and later in charge of an hospital at Wainier, Kent, England, stationed near Dover. About three months ago he was transferred to the Landover Castle for duty.

BACK AFTER ROTARY CLUB CONVENTION

An Ernest Everett arrived home at noon after attending the International Rotary Club convention in Kansas City. He reports a delightful time and lists statements by the other local delegates, R. W. Wigmore, M.P. and Dr. H. Barton, was royally entertained. The Rotarians held business sessions, at which Mr. Wigmore's election as governor for N. B., N. S., P. E. I. and part of Q. was confirmed. There also were banquets at which St. John's M. P. spoke of recent demands for copper and tin and outdoor entertainments. Much inspiring allied work was done and everybody returned home more thoroughly Rotarian than ever.

IN WALL STREET

New York, July 3.—Stocks opened with a general denunciation of strength today, despite the less favorable character of early war bulletins. Copper and kindred metals led the broad advance at gains of one to two points on the higher price granted by the war board. United States Steel's first transaction embraced 5,000 shares at an extreme rise of 1-1/8. Oils, motors, tobacco and leathers trailed along at fractional gains, but rails again were listless. Liberty bonds were steady.

CORN AND OATS

Chicago, July 3.—Bullish crop estimates tended to put fresh strength today in the corn market. A prominent authority figured the acreage at 3,100,000 less than the total last year. Scantiness of offerings counted also as a factor in lifting prices. The opening, which ranged from 1-8 to 1-10 higher, with August $1.31 5-8 to $1.22 1-4 and September $1.30 to $1.23 1-4, was followed by a decided general advance.

HUN SHELL KILLS 15 AT BALL GAME

Cobourg, Ont., July 3.—Gunner Cecil Climo in an address given here said that in a ball game at the front the players were using a Hun shell, one part of which had exploded for a base. One of them accidentally struck the shell and an explosion occurred which killed fifteen of them.

(Continued from page 1) others of the ship's officers, and a Canadian medical officer, who also were interrogated, were finally allowed to go. Survivors reported that the submarine was afterwards heard shelling an unseaworthy target.

Feared Worst

London, July 3.—A thorough search of the waters in the vicinity of the spot where the Landover Castle was sunk by a German submarine has resulted in no further survivors being found. An official statement issued by the admiralty says it may be assumed that only twenty-four of the 288 persons on board were saved. Only a little wreckage and one empty boat were found.

Winnipeg, July 3.—As far as can be learned, there were only two people from Winnipeg on the Landover Castle—Louis Arthur Shipman and George Harvey, both ordies.

Three Classes Of Sanitaria Patients

The patients in the vocational training section of the sanitarium have been divided into three classes: Class A—Bel-cases suffering from the disease in an acute stage and who require in bed until their temperature is practically normal.

Class B—Punch-cases who go to bed three times a day and rest in chairs the fresh air the remainder of the day.

Class C—Exercise-cases who commence by taking a fifteen minutes walking exercise daily, gradually increasing to two hours' walk each morning and a similar walk in the afternoon.

As Strength Increases

Patients in Class B are able to do more of the same kind of work as that assigned to Class A patients. As their strength increases they undertake heavier work such as needle basketry, etc. Some Class A and Class B men undertake academic work with advantage.

Class C patients are prepared for active work by proper physical exercise including light fatigues, walking, and light squall-drill. As soon as possible they take up arts and crafts works such as basketry, carving, toy-making, light cabinet-making, art metal work, picture frame-making, illuminating, engraving, stenciling, etc. Others are trained as chauffeurs, which occupation is recommended medically as an ideal employment for lung sufferers.
