Drumming Up Business

WHEN the hot weather comes, wise business men will add to their selling efforts rather than reduce them.

They will do extraordinary things to stimulate trade, and will make their offerings exceptionally attractive as to both kind and price.

The merchants of this community whose business will keep up this summer will solicit business in the most expeditious and least expensive of all known methods. Advertising is a drum, an instrument of attention and incitement; a resonant thing that calls to action.

Buyers wait on the call of advertising to spend their money. They look for the summons to them in the columns of their newspapers. The newspaper is the instructor and director of the public. For a merchant to shut his eyes to this fact is costly blindness.

Tell the public of this community about your offerings and service for the summer months. Tempt them in various ways. They have as much money to spend in summer as at other times, and are willing to spend, but they must be shown what to spend on and for.

The supreme medium of appeal is the daily newspaper.

You can obtain helpful advice on advertising free of cost and without obligation by consulting the Advertising Department of The Telegraph and Times.

FREE OUT SERVICE with a view to greater co-operation with advertisers a free cut service is maintained in the Advertising Department of The Telegraph and Times. The illustrations
