Daily Hints For the Cook

Cheese Cake

One pound of soft cheese, passed through a sieve, put in a bowl and add half cup of sugar, two eggs, one heaping tablespoon of butter, two tablespoons of cornstarch or four tablespoons of flour (mixed well together); flavor with cinnamon or lemon, vanilla or mace. The cheese cake should be of the running order, adding enough milk to make it so. Cheese cake when baked should be like custard, nice and smooth when cut. When cakes are baked sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Peach and Rice Meringue

Put the rice over a hot fire in a large saucpan of cold water and stir occasionally while it is heating. Let boil five minutes, then drain in a sieve and pass cold water from the faucet through it. This is called blanched rice. Now cook a cup of blanched rice and salt in three cups of milk until tender and dry; add three egg yolks, quarter cup each of butter, sugar and whipped cream. Make a border of rice on a serving dish that will stand the heat of the oven. Surround this with halves of peaches (fresh or canned), with skins removed. Inside the border place sliced peaches and rice in layers, sprinkling the peaches with sugar, and giving the whole a dome shape. Cover with meringue, dust with clove of the evening a solo was sung by Mrs. A. P. Crockett.

CLEAN-UP IN VANCOUVER OF SEGREGATED AREA

Women Social Workers Make Effort to Reform Wayward Girls

Vancouver, Nov. 28—Mayor Baxter has issued an order to the police to clean out the restricted district of Alexander street. Two years ago the women located in this section, which starts within a couple of blocks from the main police station in the east end. On the heels of the police went a large party of women, representing the various rescue homes of the city. They sought to call on as many of the girls as would see them, offering assistance in getting them to start in the right path and offering them homes in which to begin reformation. The work of notification and moral salvage was hampered, however, by the fact that all doors were closed against the visitors, who merely left cards of the mission homes and then came away.

Missionary Anniversary

The Women's Missionary Societies of the Methodist churches in the city celebrated their nineteenth anniversary in Centenary church last evening. Mrs. C. P. Sanford read the report of the board meeting held in Toronto last September which showed that the collections during the year amounted to $199,000, an increase of $25,000 over the previous year. An interesting discourse was given by Mrs. John Humphreys of Sussex and among the musical selections was a solo by Miss Baskin. Tea was served by the ladies of Centenary in the evening. Miss Robertson gave an interesting lecture on her missionary work in Japan. At the close of the evening a solo was sung by Mrs. A. P. Crockett.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Dark, Thick, Glossy With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Have You Settled

Whether tea and coffee cause that nervous headache, irritable heart, insomnia, or the dozen and one obscure aches and pains that are a part of the daily existence of many? If you are absolutely sure that tea or coffee isn't the "drag," or if you are willing to put up with the discomforts, well and good—

But if steady health and comfort, and the power to "do things" appeal to you, quit tea and coffee and

Try POSTUM

The relief is likely to be marked; the change so pleasant and easy, that Postum is sure to become the regular table drink instead of tea or coffee.

Postum is a pure food-drink made of wheat and a small per cent of New Orleans molasses. It is absolutely free from the drug, "caffeine," found in tea and coffee, or any other injurious substance.

Postum now comes in two forms. Regular Postum—must be well boiled. Instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolved in a cup of hot water, with the addition of cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly.
