

exhibitions or entertainments, and of special classes for instruction of any kind, not sanctioned by the Board.

18. Teachers are expected to refrain from all public, political, and ecclesiastical controversy, and to remember, that the public schools are intended for the children of all, without regard to the party principles of any, in matters religious or political.

19. The daily exercises of each school shall accord with the general programme of studies adopted by the Board, and a printed time table denoting them shall be permanently suspended in every class-room.

20. The books used and the studies pursued in all the schools shall be such and such only as may be authorised by the board, or as, under special circumstances, may be temporarily sanctioned by the Superintendent.

