is increased, by adding additional creased benefits therefrom. The claim The past year has been a fairly pros- of her right to cabinet representation perous one in all lines of business in in the fullest sense does not rest upon the city of Victoria; but the growth of the administration of the salmon fishbusiness in the past year would not in eries of the province, but upon the itself have warranted the expenditure matter of simple justice. As a provto which we have gone. The prospects lince we do not now occupy so insignifor the coming year, and for succeed- ficant a position in the confederation ing years are so excellent that we con- that we can reasonably be denied that sider ourselves justified in anticipating which is accorded all other sections of this good old city also indulge in lively ance of the questions which arise in hopes for the future, and may their coninection with administration; are anticipations be fully realized. A not so fully entitled to representation. happy and prosperous New Year to all!

The year 1905 has been an eventful one in the history of the world. The Dr. R. B. Dier, of Victoria, Weds Cranmost notable feature of it was the humiliation of Russia, a nation whose might and resources filled the greatest of neighboring nations with something more than mere respect. A despised power, a people who were not even accorded the status of a power, pressed the cup to the lips of the swaggerer tist church, in the presence of only the and compelled him to drain it down to immediate friends of the contracting the lees. And the end for Russia is not parties. The bride was given away by yet. No one is gifted with sufficient prescience to predict what the ultimate outcome will be. Of the Muscovites the Jap has slain his thousands; ere the Tartar be restored to his right mind Ladysmith, where they will make their his fratricidal hand may be steeped in the blood of tens of thousands. When such a spirit as that which is stalking through the land is once aroused it is difficult to predict the ultimate outcome. For all that is being done, for outrages and brutalities that are almost outside the range of the imagination of a reasonably well balanced tem of Russia and the administrators of that system must shoulder the moral responsibility.

Turkey, of course, is in the midst of a regular and seasonable period of turmoil. It is not impossible that the Sultan, in the name of humanity may be subjected to the humiliation of impotently standing by and seeing another slice cut from his territory.

Outside of the above two unsettled countries the relations between the between Great Britain and the United | that General Caseseres, the vice-presi-States has never been more cordial. This in itself furnishes a very substantial guarantee of the permanent peace of the world. Still one cannot over- the presidential office. look the fact that some of the powers are persistently increasing their armament and preparing for any eventualities which may suddenly transpire. But the fact still remains that all the really civilized portion of the earth is not be affected by Morales' retirement, firmly convinced that the day of great | for the dominant party in the cabinet wars is past. Not one of the great powers dare heedlessly or recklessly appeal to the terrible arbitrament of the sword. None of them can hope for such prosperity as we enjoy in this yet new continent, but the outlook for them all is hopeful with the sense of the capital in order to join his partipermanent tranquility. While the year | zans in the north, and Gen. Rodriguez. upon which we are about to enter is likely to be a notable one in many respects, may it not be distinguished as a period of inhuman carnage.

CABINET REPRESENTATION.

Our neighbors in the state of Washington appear to be greatly interested in the matter of the selection of a new Minister of Marine and Fisheries. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer says "one of arily, Senator Templeman's strongest claims to the portfolio of the late Raymond Prefontaine is British Columbia's paramount interest in the fishing industry. The people of the entire province could do worse than stand solidly behind Mr. Templeman." T. J. Gorman, whose the Unionists" is the keynote of a maniname we do not recollect to have ever heard before, tells the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper that "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper than "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper than "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper than "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper than "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper than "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper than "a minister of fisheries appointed from British Columbia who is familiar to the same newspaper than "a minister of fisheries a from British Columbia who is familiar with the condition of the industry in United Irish League held a three hours British Columba would be a benefit to Puget Sound as well as to the province of British Columbia. The most important fisheries of the Sound are the sockeye salmon, and as this is the only utmost in the discomfiture of the coalifish that is taken in British Columbia | tion which has inflicted such immense in to any extent, any movement for the benefit of British Columbia would be of equal value to the Sound. . . The support them. new minister should undoubtedly be wote for the Liberals. from British Columbia and should be The followers of Lord Rosebery are exsome one who is familiar with the fisheries of eries." Just so. But the fisheries of British Columbia are not the only matters that absorb the attention of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries in the Dominion cabinet. There is considerable business in connecton with the fisheries of Eastern waters, and with the administration of Eastern marine some one who is familiar with the fish- cluded from the latter category and the the administration of Eastern marine affairs generally. The shipping of British Columbia is of considerable importance, but its importance does not overbalance that of the St. Lawrence and other Eastern points. The fish-

Boils, Humors, Salt Rheum

Davis & Lawrence Co., Ltd., Montreal.

but they merely represent the multi- have been administered in accordance plication of the principle embodied in with the suggestions of the represenour machine. Their capacity has been tatives of British Columbia, with the increased, as the capacity of a building result that we are experiencing inof British Columbia for the recognition the country, sections which by reason May all our readers and patrons in of position or by reason of the import-

MARRIED AT SPOKANE.

brook Girl.

Dr. R. B. Dier, of this city, and Miss Gertrude C. Williams, of Cranbrook, were united in wedlock at Spokane on Saturday. The ceremony was performed as the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. O. W. Van Osdel, of the Bap-Mr. S. Atkinson, formerly of this city, performed the congenial duties of best city yesterday, and will shortly leave for ome, Dr. Dier having quite an extensive dental practice there.

-Another cargo ship has been added to those en route to this port, the British ship Barcore having been taken up by Robert Ward & Company to load at Liverpool and Glasgow for Victoria and Vancouver. The Barcore is a vessel of 2,041 tons register, and is commanded by Capt. McKenzie. Western mind, the centuries-old sys- She sailed from San Francisco for Liverpool on August 23rd. The vessel is owned by the Remo Shipipng Co., of

NEW PRESIDENT.

Caseseres Will Succeed Morales in Sante Domingo.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 28.-Mr. Joubert, the Dominican minister here, called upon Secretary Root at the state department to-day. He had a short cablegram from Senor Tejera, the nations are of the best. The feeling minister of foreign affairs, announcing dent, who was at Puerta Plata when Morales fled from the capital, was expected to arrive at San Domingo city to-morrow, and would be inducted into Jouhert whether Morales intended to start another revolution. In the minister's opinion the modus vivendi under which Dominican customs revenues are now being collected by the Americans will still stands strongly committed to the existing arrangements.

North Favors Morales.

Cape Haytien, Dec. 28.-The greatest part of northern Santo Domingo is said to be in favor of Gen. Morales. It is understood here that Morales left the governor of Monte Cristi, with his followers of that vicinity, have gone meet General Morales. General Rodiguez' forces are said to number thousands. It is claimed here that the report that Morales intends to establish a new capital at Monte Cristi is accurate, and that he will use that place as a base from which he will endeavor to suppress the uprising of the Caceres party. Censorship of all Monte Cristi. Important news from Santo Domingo is expected moment-

IRISH MANIFESTO.

Voters Advised to Aid in the Discomfiture of the Unionists.

London, Dec. 30 .- "The discomfiture of as to their attitude at the forthcoming You who are waiting don't know what elections. The executive council of the session in London to-day under the presidency of T. P. O'Connor. John F. Redmond drew up the manifesto, which declares that the first duty of the Irish voters in Great Britain is due to aid the juries on the country. Where labor can didates are sound on the Home Rule question, the Irish are recommended to

Tainted Gold.

BY MRS. C. N. WILLIAMSON, Author of "The Barn Stormers," "Fortune's Sport," "Lady Mary of the Dark House," "Queen Sweetheart," "The House by the Lock," etc.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

The Price She Was to Pay. Winifred Gray did not deceive herself. She knew what she was doing in going alone to the house of Lionel Macaire. She knew what his reputation was; she knew how, since she had, shown the loathing she felt for him and his insults, he had built up, stone by stone, his scheme of revenge.

Sometimes a stone had fallen with the dull ring of failure for him; but he had set it up again with another piled upon it; and when she went to shameful structure he had planned Still, if she hesitated in telegraphing her reply to Dick's imploring letter, it was not for long. Poor, foolish Dick! He had been but a cat's-paw from the first, as she had warned him; yet she would not remind him now of that warning. She would save him, and if she could not save herself when the time came, she must die.

To those who did not know of the silent battle waged for so many months it would seem a small, almost and absurdly small, sacrifice to make, that she should dine at the house of a man whom she disliked, when by doing so she could keep her brother from going to prison and spare her invalid mother a blow which might crush out

But Winifred knew when she made the promise that it meant far more than a dinner at a house where she would have preferred not to go.

If Hope Newcome had been to her the man she had once thought him, she would have hesitated longer before sacrificing her reputation to save her brother from prison. She would have belonged to her lover, and would have had no right to put Dick before him. But the girl believed that she had done for ever with love and lovers. Since the only man to whom she had given her heart had been able to hide his baseness with seeming nobility, Winifred had lost faith in all men, and told herself that she hated every one. Except for her mother it mattered little enough what became of the rest of

She did not sleep much before the night when she would be called upon to keep her promise. The thought of what she must do was like a waking nightmare. It was always before her whether her eyes were closed or open Her imagination conjured up a hundred different methods by which Maeaire might seek to entrap her; and the hours she should have slept were spent in striving to think how, while she kept her word to the letter, she might still contrive to thwart the ultimate designs which she suspected. Winifred did not tell her mother of the trouble which had befallen Dick nor of her promise to Macaire. If all were well, Mrs. Gray never need know: if not, there was time enough for her to be made unhappy. As the girl went out every evening soon after seven to keep her nightly engagement at the Salisbury, her mother would believe that she was absent upon her usual errand. It would be necessary to say: "I shall be later than usual"-for the dinner was to be at nine-and Winifred hoped, after keeping her hateful bargain to the letter, to reach home before midnight. Only there was such terrible indefiniteness in her hope. She did not know what danger she might be going to meet at Macaire's house, and unless Dick were there she would have no one to protect her.

At half-past seven she left the dismal lodging house which was "home" now. She had kissed her mother even more tenderly than was her wont, and clung to the little frail woman yearningly for a moment, that was all: and Mrs. Gray suspected nothing. Winifred had made her promise not to sit up as she must be late, but the girl knew that her mother would not sleep until she was safely back again. "Safely back again!" How much there was in dull little rooms which appeared desirable in her eyes to-night for the hours hold of fear and humiliation for Winifred had put on a very simple evening dress, which she covered with eyes; for she was in the habit of walkshort dark skirt. Her "turn" was one | couldn't understand why, or what he | Perhaps you didn't realize that this diseases; some as a tonic. You will use it as they do, when you learn what the product does. And you will then regret that you delayed so long.

of the first on the long programme, a position not considered desirable by the artistes, since the nearer their since—older and graved in his ways. names were to the middle the more If I'd chosen I could have unmistakable the hall-mark of their

to finish early. song and satisfied the audience with a tary. I couldn't give that up. And I couple of encores. There was just time was sure, you see, that you were misto change her stage dress for the taken about Macaire." evening gown she had worn, and Irive to Park Lane; and as the hour drew near the girl's heart grew cold as ice.

She dared not be late, she dared not spoilt my life. Yet you are not coherent. wish that some incident might delay ed to call on me to save you." or prevent her going lest Dick should be made to suffer.

How sickeningly her pulses beat as the friend. If I had-I hope I'd have been cab drove into the court yard and decent enough to do differently. stopped before the great brilliantly it's too late for that now. And I see lighted house! Her knees trembled, I've ruined myself with you. Do as piled upon it; and when she went to lighted house. Her knees trembed, I've rulned mysen with you. Do as keep the appointment at his house, the and she almost fell as she stepped you like. Don't go into the house. I'll LICENSE TO AN EXTRA-PROVINGE CIAL COMPANY. down to the pavement. The huge doors | run away-be off somewhere, I don't looked to her like the doors of a know where and escape from prison. If only Dick had written-if caire's anger when he finds that he's only she found Dick inside! But there been tricked." had been no word from him save a few lines of thanks after receiving her telegram. She paid the cabman, and then—slowly, in spite of herself—moved But—some time, before long, I hope, towards the door which she feared might open before her knock. The hansom was driving away; it was all but he wrote, sending me his address, that she could do not to call after it and tell the man to stop-she had changed her mind and would go back.

As her eyes wistfully followed him voice spoke almost in her ear:

Winnie! I've been waiting for you Winnie! I've been waiting for you this half hour."

"Dick!" she thankfully exclaimed.

"Yes. We've only a minute to speak together. I can't go in; I'm not wanted inside that house any more, and I don't want to be there, heaven knows, except for you. But I had to see you. Lucky for us your cab had rubber tyres and didn't make much noise, or the door would be open now and you going in. I couldn't have got a word. Look here, Winnie, I am beginning to be afraid you were right about Macaire. He certainly is a villain—bad caire. He certainly is a villain-bad he did lay the trap to get us both to "I've never doubted that for an instant," said the girl.

enough for anything, and the more

I've thought of it the more I believe

"Yet you're here, Winnie. I'm brute to let you come, but I didn't see it this way at first when I wrote begging you to consent. And how could go to prison? For mother's sake, how could I go? I was sure I should be on hand to look after you and see that you came to no harm, so I let | things slide when I began to realize that Macaire meant worse mischief. But I've been utrned from the house, and told that if I tried to force my way in I should be pitched out by the footmen. I pretended to go, but I sneaked back here to wait for you, and give you a word of warning. I would say, don't go in after all, no matter what happened to me-"

"You needn't, Dick," Winifred broke "Nothing that you tell me comes as a surprise. I shall go in and keep my word. It would not be true to say I am not afraid of Lionel Macaire, for I am-horribly afraid. And I hate him, and shudder at him. But I do believe that I shall find protection from him." "If ever a girl deserved such protection, it's vou," cried Dick "But listen; I was going to say that I'd tell you not to go in spite of everything if it were'nt for Von Zellheim. He'll he here at Macaire's to-night. I know that."

"Baron von Zellheim?" reneated the full title which he claimed. "What help can his presence give me? It only house of the man he was bribed to aid in hunting me down."

Zellheim never did that." Dick assertas steel." "So you once said of his master." retorted the girl, stung to desperation. "Oh, if this is all you have to tell me, let me go and get this horrible night over quickly-however it is to end.' Dick caught her arm and held her back when she would have fled up the three marble steps that led to the door those simple words! What would be her thoughts when she returned to the of old green bronze. "You must hear me," he ejaculated. "It was all my fault that you distrusted Von Zellheim. I'll stake my life he'd have first time? What would the next five killed Macaire rather than be his he was. He didn't even know that you ily, trying in vain to avoid his hand, a long cloak even from her mother's If you had seen him, half-a-dozen words of explanation would have made unmistakable the hall-mark of their importance; but on this particular night it was convenient for Winifried thought of Macaire. If he did know, I was certain there'd be no end of a By half-past cight she had sung her row, and I'd lose my chance as secre-

Say "Yes"

"To keep your place you let me insult the man I loved!" cried Winifred.

"For heaven's sake, Winnie, look at me, don't speak to me like She dressed with speed, and at that! I am ashamed-I'm in the dust twenty minutes to nine she was in a hansom on her way to Park Lane. with shame. And I didn't dream you cared for Von Zellheim except as a

"No. I will go in-heaven help me!" said Winifred, with a breaking voice.
"You will? Heaven bless you, then. Von Zellheim will be here. He doesn't know that you are to be in the house; and I wired, telling him that he must come if he would save me from shame. Already he has been helping me-and he will be here to-night without fail. I'm as sure of it as if I had his promise. You'll trust him now, the darkness. A footman in purple and gold livery showed her to a corridor branching off the main hall, and there she was met by a maid, who took congruous against a background of such magnificence.

The maid helped to remove the cloak, and Winifred was thankful to see a collection of exquisite wraps belonging to other women. One of her fears had been either that she was to dine with Macaire alone, or that she would find herself the only woman among a crowd of men in the fast, surprise. Her nerves were tensely keyed for what might be coming. "What name?" inquired the big footman, with a veiled glitter of impertinence under supercilious lids. "Miss Winifred Gray," the girl answered mechanically, and then wished that she had refused to give any name at all. A door was thrown open, and a clatter of voices suddenly buzzed in her ears They were not sweet, gently modulated voices, but loud and vulgar Winifred, bitterly, giving her lost lover in every note, though they were the accents of women.

The air was heavy with the scent of makes it all a thousand times worse lilies, almost deadly in their keen that he should see me here in the sweetness. The room, which was all white and gold and palest pink, was decorated in the style of Louis "Winifred, I swear to you that Von Quatorze, and Winifred remembered how she had heard that each room in ed. "You must trust him. He's true Macaire's town house was furnished after the fashion of a different nation and period.

Before her mind had had time to receive any other definite impression.

sentence he spoke with meaning. "I had promised, and I never break friend, if he'd guessed what a villain my word," answered Winifred, haughtand Macaire were more than the which pounced upon and imprisoned merest acquaintances—I'd swear that. hers like a hawk seizing a dove. "But you need not have waited for me." "What!" exclaimed Macaire. "Not ing to the Salisbury in a coat and everything right. But you refused; he wait for the guest of the evening?

To This Offer and See the Good You Wiil Get

Write us if you are ready to try Liquo- | fill this offer. 50c Bottle Free

You who are waiting don't know what you miss. There are plenty to tell you if you would ask; for millions have already used it. Some use it to get well; some to keep well. Some to cure germ diseases; some as a tonic. You will use

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—what Liquozone can do.

Where It Applies

Irish are recommended to Otherwise they should iberals.

Of Lord Rosebery are explored advice to votnices where there is a Urish are recommended to Otherwise they should iberals.

In the virtues of Liquozone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germinist.

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it to-Liquozone costs 50c. and $1.

Cut Out This Coupon

Fill it out and mail it to The Liquo-zone Company, 458-464 Wabasa Axe., Chicago.

My disease is ..... I have never tried Liquozone, but if you will supply me a 50c. bottle Iree I will take it.

Give full address-write plainly. Key W415.

Note that this offer applies to new users

Tyee Copper Co., Ltd.

Furchasers and Smelters of Copper, Gold and Silver Ores. Smelting Works at

LADYSMITH, VANCOUVER ISLAND, B. C. Head Office-

Clermont Livingstone,

A Good Rubber

Syringes, Atomizers and Sickroom R

98 Government St., Near Yates

GREAT

THE

London

TIMES

WeeklyEdition

The Semi

Weekly

Victoria

rearson's

Magazine

The London Times Weekly

and either one of the others

For $3.30

$4.00

CHE

General Manager

Vancouver Island, B.C.

Duncan's Station,

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897." Province of British Columbia.

This is to certify that "The Travellers! Insurance Company," is authorized and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects of the Company to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Hartford, in the State of Connecticut.

The amount of the capital of the Company is one million dollars, divided into This is to certify that "The Travellers pany is one million dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The head office of the Company in this quisites will be found here. Satisfa tion guaranteed. to insure persons against, and to make all and every insurance connected with, accidental loss of life, or personal injury sustained by accident of every descrip-Cyrus H. Bowes, Chemist there she was met by a maid, who took tion; to insure persons against loss of her into a room which at first glance life or personal injury resulting from any her into a room which at first glance seemed walled with morrors. Everywhere Winifred saw her own reflection—a slim little figure in a plain, long grey cloak, looking strangely ininjuries, fatal or otherwise, or injury to property connected with personal in juries, resulting from accidental causes.

ESTATE OF KATE AUSTIN, DECEASED

Notice is hereby given that all persons having any claims against the Estate of Kohert street, Victoria West, who died on 23rd March, 1905, and to whose personal estate among a crowd of men in the fast, reckless set which Macaire was said to lead. Courage came back to her at sight of those dainty evening wraps which suggested the inner heart of Paris.

She left the mirrored dressing-room, and gave herself again to a footman's guidance. Never had Winifred seen so marvellous a house, but she was scarcely conscious of admiration or surprise. Her nerves were tensely Regular Notice is hereby given that. 30 days after date, I intend to apply to the Honorable Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works for special license to cut and carry away timber from the following described land in Coast District, situated on Gilford Island: Commencing at a post marked C. S. Battle, situated about 40 chains southwest from the mouth of Fraser Lake and at or near the centre of the north line of Timber Limit 2647, thence north 80 chains, west 80 chains, south 80 chains, and east 80 chains, south 80 chains, and east 80 chains to place of commencement. Containing 640 acres.

C. S. BATTLE.

Notice is hereby given that, sixty days after date, we intend to apply to the after date, we intend to apply to the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works to purchase the following described land: Commencing at the southeast corner post on Dease Lake, Cassiar, near Porter's Landing, of Lot 206, thence north 40 chains, thence east 40 chains, thence south to the lake shore, thence following the lake shore to the point of commencement, and containing 100 acres Price ing the take shore to the point of commencement, and containing 160 acres more or less.

Dated at Victoria, B. C., 11th Dec., 1905.

THE GOVERNOR AND COMPANY Or'
ADVENTURERS OF ENGLAND

ADVENTURERS OF ENGLAN TRADING INTO HUDSON'S BAY. save that there were a number of men and women in the room, the latter gorgeously dressed and blazing with diamonds, Macaire himself came forward, holding out his hand.

"We've been waiting for you," he said.
"I'd begun to be afarid that you weren't coming after all." And this synthesis here were he grade with the said to point of commencing and east 80 chains, south 80 chains, and east 80 chains to point of commencement. Containing 646 to point of commencement. Containing 64 Notice is hereby given that the undersigned intend to apply to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the incorporation of North Saanich District by Letters Patent under the Public Seal into a District Municipality to as the Corporation of the District of North Saanich. JAMES BRYCE. GEORGE SANGSTER. Times, Ottawa, Ontario.

SECOND-HAND PIANO FOR SALE-$135. This instrument has been used by a teacher and is thoroughly well made Will be delivered free to any wharf or railway station in B. C. Hicks & Lovick Piano Co., 88 Government street, Victoria; 123 Hastings street, Vancouver

POULTRY FOR SAIE Buff Rocks, Black Langshans, Black

Minorcas, Blue Andalusians, White Wyandottes, Silver Lace Wyandottes, These birds are all from prize-winning stock and will be sold cheap. Also a few White Leghorn Cockerels.

R. P. EDWARDS, South Salt Spring, B. C.

LAND REGISTRY ACT. the Matter of an Application for a

Duplicate Certificate of Title to Lot 42, Part of Section 81 (Map 321), Vic-

Registrar-General. Land Registry Office, Victoria, B.C., 19th December, 1905.

office at Victoria, province of British little dinner is being given in your honor? I've invited friends who have been especially anxious to meet you ever since last December, when you were playing Mazeppa." "I never did play Mazeppa," Winifred answered him in a clear, distinct voice, that could be heard at the other individuals and every insuend of the large room. "Did'nt you? Oh, I beg your pardon. I thought you did. But that is annuities. night? And that our dinner may be introduce you and my other Any physician or hospital not yet using no formal, conventional affair, like who've come especially to meet those of ordinary society that doesn't each other." know how to enjoy itself, I want to

Mr. Just fendan

> lown judgment in th Railway Company vs Lordship gave decisi defendant. This case brought before the cou tlers' Rights Act pass lature two sessions ago it was provided that th settlers' claims in co borne by the governm A. E. McPhillips, K. of defend the first cas up in October for trial. was assisted by H. G. The railway compa ed by A. P. Luxton Pooley. Argument, i bered, lasted for days

The railway compa the defendant, who ha grant under the act, to the coal or timber was it constitutional of the land.

The case, it is expe pealed to the Privy Judgment was ha Justice Martin Frida It must first be de legal status of the d the time he entered u the lands in question pends upon the fact of served or not, from s time. By section 42 then in force, Rev.

42. The governor s advisable, reserve, b newspaper of the co that may not have legally pre-empted. thereby conferred this Island, including opinion, whatever it those claiming rights of the Terms of Uni questioned here. Such being the ca at the time of the pa relating to the Is the Province" (1884) because of the recit that it was passed culties between the t and hence was mere ly known in this pro he included in t Hoggan vs. Esq Co. (1894), A. C. 429 ifest that if the de ing upon the "Var tlers' Rights Act, is a public and ge tains this except under this act shall be defended at th

This gives a sign that the legislature was legislating in a of the common, and in litigation was was prepared not usual benefits, but assist the beneficiar ment of the rights Reading the act and this section as preamble referring titles in fee simple to the succeeding

the definition of th

section 2 (b) is clea

"Unless the co

(b.) "Settler" sha

A CHRISTMA

mier McBride's

People of th

bristma

who, prior to the act, occupied or in pied by them," by tain "decisions of

however, no dou

quires:

. who have be

A great chance to obtain England's greatest weekly, British Columbia's intent and meaning greatest paper and a world-renowned mind that as it is a statute statements magazine at a bargain. Aunual subtinued must be acce scriptions only, payable in advance, to curate (Attorney-G F. S. Wright, Canadian Agent, the Ludgate, 1901-4, 8 B 258.) I have no do perusal of it, what jects is, i. e., to rec being entitled to sp premises; to treat they had been in served crown lands Land Act. This vie ported by the first

LICENSE TO AN EXTRA-PROVIN-CIAL COMPANY. "Companies Act, 1897."

Canada: Province of British Columbia.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that the "Metropolitan Life Insurance Company" is authorized and licensed to carry on business within the province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects of the Company to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends. The head office of the Company is situate at the City of New York, in the State of New York. The amount of the capital of the The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, dividintention, at the expiration of one month from the first publication hereof, to issue a duplicate of the certificate of title to the above land, issued to Robert George Johnston on the 8th day of September, 1891, and numbered 12004A.

Registrar-General.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital of the Company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each.

The amount of the croital end in the company is two million dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each. Company is two mililon dollars, divided into eighty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each. whose address is Vancouver, is the attorney for the Company. Given under my hand and seal of > Columbia, this 21st day of November, one thousand nine hundred and five. [L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON, Registrar of Joint Stock Compar The objects for which this Conhas been established and licer To make insurance upon and to grant, purchase or