V. W. Bro. R. Lewis, President of the Masonic Temple Company then addressed the Grand Master, as follows:— Most Worshipful Sir.—“I have been deputed by the Directors of the Masonic Temple Company to present you with this trowel, as a slight testimonial of our esteem for you personally, and in commemoration of the important work to which you have kindly lent your aid today.”

The trowel, which was a very beautiful specimen of the silver-smith's handiwork, bore the following inscription:

Presented to

JAS. A. HENDERSON, Esq., Q. C.,

Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. Masons of Canada, on the occasion of his laying the Corner Stone of the Masonic Temple, London, Ontario,

5th August, A. L. 5880.

In receiving the handsome gift, the Grand Master said:— “Accept my thanks for this beautiful trowel which you have presented to me. I receive it with pleasure, and shall retain it as a pleasing memento of the work so happily begun. The passing of
