

X.—CLINICAL MEDICINE

Profs. REID and LAWSON.

Taught at the Provincial and City Hospital and Halifax Dispensary
—a prominent place is given to Physical Diagnosis, including Auscultation, Percussion, Examination of Urine, &c.

XI.—CLINICAL SURGERY.

Profs. FARBELL and J. F. BLACK.

Taught at the Provincial and City Hospital and Halifax Dispensary, the students being individually trained at the bedside, both in Diagnosis and Treatment, including use of bandages and surgical appliances generally.

XII.—BOTANY.

Lectures on this subject are given by Prof. GAO. LAWSON, at Dalhousie College.

In this course special attention is directed to the natural Orders containing Medicinal and Poisonous Plants.

Text Book.—Gray.

XIII.—PRACTICAL PHARMACY.

O. E. PUTTNER, PH.M., Apothecary to Provincial and City Hospital.

This course is conducted at the Provincial and City Hospital, and Halifax Dispensary, where students have actual experience in the compounding of Medicines.

XIV.—MICROSCOPY.

Dr. A. W. H. LINDSAY, Visiting Physician Halifax Dispensary.

XV.—OPHTHALMOLOGY AND OTOTOLOGY.

Prof. TORIN.

Lectures illustrated by cases and by exhibition of various appliances for diagnosis and treatment.