

the same was duly forwarded by me through Bro. Wm. Fitzsimmons, to Mrs. Reynolds, together with the letter of Condolence, which was prefixed in the Bible as a fly-leaf.

She expressed herself highly pleased, and wished me to convey her sincere thanks to the Grand Lodge for so beautiful a gift; one which she should ever highly prize.

The Reports from the several Lodges I have condensed into the following:—

Note. The Suspensions and Expulsions are mostly for non-payment of Dues.
