

On resolution of Rep. Logan, the thanks of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge were tendered to Past Grand Sire Isaac M. Veitch. (Members standing). The Right Worthy Grand Secretary was instructed to procure the portrait of Past Grand Sire Veitch, the same to be placed in the Cabinet of the Right Worthy Grand Body.

The following highly honored and revered Brothers having been duly elected to the several offices, were by Past Grand Sire Veitch, installed into their respective positions for and during the present term, viz:

The appointed officers were likewise installed, as follows:

Upon retiring, Past Grand Sire Veitch delivered an eloquent address in every way suitable to the occasion.

Most Worthy Grand Sire Saunders, upon taking the gavel also addressed the Grand Lodge. His remarks were well timed, fluent and forcible; and well calculated to instill a new energy in all present.

Officers and Brethern, again I have to chronicle the courtesies which were extended to me by the Officers and Reps. of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge, and also of the many good Brethern of Baltimore and elsewhere during my sojourn among them. I cannot fully describe either with pen or tongue, the fraternal attentions bestowed me.

Officers and Brethern, I again thank you most cordially for the honor conferred on me in placing me in the honorable position of Rep. to the Grand Lodge of the United States. Brothers, the condition of our "Order" is such as to give us renewed energy in spreading abroad its noble principles, let us strive earnestly to strengthen and perpetuate them.

With Much Respect, I Subscribe Myself;

Yours Faithfully and Fraternaly. &c. &c.,

JAMES SMITH,

Grand Representative.

Past Grand Master H. C. Bingham moved that the hour of twelve o'clock noon to-morrow be fixed for the exemplification of the unwritten work by the M. W. Grand Sire.

Rep. E. Beltz of 38 moved to amend by striking out the word twelve o'clock noon and inserting three o'clock p. m. Also to add, that the Lodge be then opened in the scarlet degree, which was resolved in the affirmative, and

The motion as amended was adopted.

Rep. Thos. Partridge, from the Committee on Credentials, presented the following Supplementary Report, which was adopted:
