WILL TAKE UP CHARTER FOR VALLEY RAILWAY

FREDERICTON, N. B., Mar. 17.—Representatives of St. John, Fredericton and Woodstock Boards of Trade, together with delegates from Centreville and other points, held a meeting here this afternoon and appointed a committee to seek charters from the legislature for the construction of a railway down the St. John valley. Those present from outside points were: W. E. Foster, president, Saint John Board of Trade; J. T. Allen, Dible; B. F. Smith, C. L. Smith, representing the Woodstock Board of Trade; Dr. Pepper, Fred D. Tweed, Centreville; N. W. Brown, Southampton; and W. S. Tompkins.

Taking Deep Interest

After some discussion it was decided to appoint a committee consisting of four members from St. John, Woodstock and Fredericton Boards of Trade and two from Centreville, to take up the charter and procure all necessary information. F. H. Teed, B. F. Smith, C. L. Smith and J. T. A. Dible were named for Woodstock, Edward A. Savage and C. M. Sherwood for Centreville, W. E. Foster and three others to be named for St. John; Mayor Chestnut and Ald. Winslow and two to be named for Fredericton. Mayor Chestnut was elected permanent chairman, and Ald. Winslow permanent secretary of the committee.

W. S. Tompkins stated that in his opinion there were millions of cords of pulpwood along the line proposed worth about five dollars a cord in its raw state. If manufactured into pulpwood it would be worth at least $20 per cord. He suggested that a committee be appointed to endeavor to prevent it from being exported in the unmanufactured state.

The suggestion was concurred in and Fred Tweed of Centreville and the president of three boards of trade were named as such committee. It should at a later date appoint delegates to proceed to Ottawa and interview the government in regard to the valley railway project.

WAS IN BED FOR THREE MONTHS.

PEOPLE SAID SHE HAD CONSUMPTION.

Read how Mrs. T. G. Buck, Brasbridge, Ont., was cured and also her little boy by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. She writes: "I thought I would write and let you know the benefit I have received through the use of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A few years ago I was so badly troubled with my lungs people said I had Consumption and that I would not live through the Fall. I had two doctors attending me and they were very much alarmed about me. I was in bed three months and when I got up I could not walk, so had to go on my hands and knees for three weeks, and my limbs seemed of no use to me. I gave up all hopes of ever getting better when I happened to see in B.B.E. Almanac that Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was good for weak lungs. I thought I would try a bottle and by the time I had used it I was a lot better, so got more and it made a complete cure. My little boy was also troubled with weak lungs and he cured him. I keep it in the house all the time and would not be without it for anything."

Price 25 cents at all dealers. Beware of imitations of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Ask for it and insist on getting the original. Put up in a yellow wrapper, and three pine trees on the trade mark.

FREDERICTON, March 17.—The whole morning was taken up by the Orange Grand Lodge in discussing the proposed orphans. Charles Hickney on the loss of his son William, who died suddenly yesterday.

The new set of by-laws for the government of the Grand Lodge were taken up and occupied a great deal of time. They were finally adopted after a number of amendments had been carried. The letter of the premier of the province in his reference to the grand master's pledge is sufficient that they will desire to see the government in the more generous down throughout the province. They agreed with the grand master in his reference to the grand master's pledge is sufficient that they will desire to see the government in the more generous down throughout the province.

The report of the special committee on the grand master's address was adopted as a whole and read. The committee on correspondence reported as being in accord with the grand secretary and the means to be devised whereby the order should be strengthened in this province, and congratulated the grand master for his excellent showing financially and numerically despite the stringency in money matters last year. This is particularly noticeable. The number of new lodges instituted. They again emphasized the need of county and lodge paying strict attention to the requirements of the grand secretary in sending in returns. Greater efforts on the part of financial secretaries would prevent a number of suspensions in the ranks. They concurred with the grand secretary as to the good to be derived from putting a propagation office into the field in this province. They fully agreed with the reference to the Orange Sentinel as a fearless exponent of Protestant principles.

They asked the Grand Lodge to point out to a number of grand masters the need of greater personal effort on their part to bring their several jurisdictions more fairly in the forward movement now going on in Orange matters. Adopted. The committee on constitution and laws recommended the reference of several questions of ritual to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Adopted. The credential committee reported a full representation present, numbering 100. County Master Kelley moved the following resolution, passed by the Grand Lodge: "In case it shall come to the knowledge of the grand masters that any orphan, destitute or deserted children are in need of immediate assistance for the want of a home protection or care, that an officer is hereby empowered, at the expense of the lodge, to take up all such children until he has time to communicate with the authorities. The Grand Lodge proceeded with the selection of officers with the following results: A. W. Macrae, Grand Master; W. J. Smith, Deputy Grand Master; Rev. A. A. Rideout, Grand Chaplain; N. J. Morrison, Grand Secretary; W. J. Wadman, Grand Treasurer; Frank A. Gardner, Grand Director of Ceremonies.

MONTREAL, Mar. 18.—Engineer Mark Cunningham died at 7:45 this morning without regaining consciousness.

With regard to the damage that had been caused, Mr. McNicoll said that could not be as yet even guessed at, nor could it be until the damage to the building had been arrived at. The engine was totally wrecked with the tender, as also was the baggage car, but the rest of the train had not even left the rails, and was absolutely uninjured. Active work was already going on for the repair of the building and the removal of the rolling stock, but until a thorough survey of the building had been made, it would, he said, be impossible to estimate the total losses.

Following is the official list of killed and injured: List of dead: Edouard Villiers, 1009 Marquette street, Montreal, 12 years; Mrs. Nixon, 145 Ash Avenue, Montreal, about 22 years; N. (son), (daughter), about 9 or 10 years; Nixon (son), about 12 years.

TO EXAMINE TRURO GIRL

Outrageous Assault, Says Judge

WHIPPING EPISODE

Girl Allowed to Go on Suspended Sentence, Pending Examination

BOSTON, Mass., March 17.—Charles writing her performance with the horse whip as "an outrageous assault," Judge Michael J. Murray, in the police court today, suspended sentence in the case of Miss Josie McClellan, of Truro, N. S., until she could be examined as to her mental condition. Miss McClellan on March 9 horsewhipped George A. Sweetser, an attorney, because of his connection as a counsel for a person whom the young woman had sued for breach of promise. Previous to her attack on Sweetser, Miss McClellan had used the horsewhip on Lowellyn Puffer, in the belief that Mr. Puffer was Mr. Sweetser. In court today, Miss McClellan apologized for her attack on Puffer, but said that her attack on Attorney Sweetser was justified by his treatment of her.

In suspending sentence Judge Murray said that he found the young woman guilty of the assault, and suggested that she submit to a mental examination. Miss McClellan accepted the suggestion.
