Reciprocity and retaliation were the two phases of the tariff bill to occupy the attention of the Senate Friday, to the exclusion of all other subjects. The retaliatory clause provides that whenever any country bestows an export bounty on any article, then upon the importation of such article into the United States, there shall be levied in addition to the duties provided by the act an additional duty equal to the amount of the bounty. The clause was agreed to, 33 to 19. The reciprocity empowers the President, with the advice and counsel of the Senate, to make reciprocity treaties giving twenty per cent reduction in duties on designated articles, or placing articles on the free list. The reciprocity clause was also agreed to, 30 to 18.

Bondage in the Name of Liberty.

How often does bondage masquerade as liberty! A young man breaks away from home influence, and seeks enjoyment in doubtful places, because he wants his liberty and his independence. But his first step toward a lose and vicious life is his first step toward a new bondage. A recent writer notes that among some African races a man set free from a master at once goes and sells himself to another, for he cannot be troubled with managing for himself. But he has the excuse that he does not want the responsibility of being his own manager. Poor African that he is, he is not deluding himself as is the fairer youth who imagines that he can remain his own manager while he sells himself into the bondage of a vicious life. Polk speech says, "It's harder work getting to hell than to heaven." Better serve in the bondage to the habits of righteousness than of folly and vice.—Sunday-School Times.

How to Prepare for Death.

To prepare for death does not make a convent necessary. We do not need to go into a cell and mortify the flesh, and conjure up ghastly sights, and drown all the voices by which our senses speak to us. To prepare for death is to do one's ordinary work faithfully, and one's whole duty nobly. To prepare for death is to trade honestly, to give cheerfully, and study faithfully, to speak kindly, to smile cheerily. To prepare for death is not to chase one bright thing from life's pathway, is not to ignore one strong affection, it is not to give up one true pleasure, it is not to make one sweet thing sour, or to make believe that a bitter thing is pleasant to take. That is the glorious side of this truth. The Christian watchfulness which our Lord commands is not a timid, twittering apprehensiveness. It does not mean that we shall constantly be asking in awestruck whispers: "Is he coming?" This watchfulness simply means that we faithfully are doing our every-day duty every day.—F. E. Clark, D. Do You Use It?

It's the best thing for the hair under all circumstances. Just as no man by taking thought can add an inch to his stature, so no preparation can make hair. The utmost that can be done is to promote conditions favorable to growth. This is done by Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, cleanses the scalp, nourishes the soil in which the hair grows, and, just as a desert will blossom under rain, so bald heads grow hair, when the roots are nourished. But the roots must be there. If you wish your hair to retain its normal color, or if you wish to restore the lost tint of gray or faded hair use
