

FOR WOMEN AMUSEMENTS

BOSTON'S POLICE WOMEN TO HAVE STYLISH ROOMS

Pearl Grey and Gold Decorations for Rooms of New "Constables."

BOUDOIR ALL READY FOR THEIR ARRIVAL

Appointments Expected in Few Days as Examinations Have Been Completed.

Boston, Jan. 6.—A boudoir at police headquarters a suite of rooms furnished in pearl grey and gold with extensive mirrors, soft lounges and easy chairs was begun today. This restful spot in the grim block of the buildings, that constituted the police administration centre in Pemberton square, is the department's preparation for the advent of women to its ranks. Police women were authorized recently and examinations have been held, and it is expected to have the boudoir ready by the time appointments are announced.

Great Demand For Bibles Reported

Annual Meeting St. John Branch of Canadian Bible Society.

"I want a Gospel to read about Jesus Christ on the train." This request, which is frequently heard at the Port of St. John by Dr. Heine, Colporteur of the Canadian Bible Society, is a sign of the magnificent work being done among immigrants by the Bible Society, the St. John branch of which held its annual meeting last evening. Central Baptist church was filled to the doors with a representative gathering. Three excellent addresses on the Society and on the Bible, which its object is to distribute, were listened to with deep interest.

J. M. Rogers, president, was in the chair, and with him on the platform were Dr. Hamilton Wigle, of Sackville, and Rev. Dr. Heine, Rev. F. H. Dene, of the church, led in prayer. Rev. H. A. Goodwin read the Scripture lesson.

Treasurer's Report
The treasurer, R. T. Hayes, gave a report which included the following statements:—Collected by Miss Henderson, $52.38; collected by Miss Wesley, Trinity church, $292.96; St. John's (Stone) church, $95.45; St. Paul's church, $23.15; St. James' church, $37.09; Centenary church contribution, $195; St. Andrew's church contribution, $150; Douglas avenue and Coburg street Christian churches, $15.

Millions of Copies Distributed
Rev. S. S. Poole said that the object of the Bible Society is to give the Scriptures to all nations of the earth in their own language. The study of this book, which is the word of life, must influence the world for good. Last year 3,247,000 copies were sent to China. If Canada is to become a great nation, righteousness must be exalted above what, God above gold, and giving above getting. Providing settlers with Bibles will develop in them the right ideals.

Helps Missionaries
Dr. Wigle stated that if it were not for the Bible Society, every church member would have to give much more largely to missions, as missionaries could not carry on their work without the Bibles supplied by the society. The Bible is published in seventy-three tongues. Johannesburg, South Africa, has the largest local circulation with seventy-five different dialects; Chicago has seventy, and Winnipeg, sixty-five.

The Bible satisfies the mind of man, it is a reasonable interpretation of life, an explanation of creation, and shows development of heart and moral life. There is no modern social idea which can improve upon the Golden Rule. Its writers claim that it stands any test. The Bible has human endorsement, as to its authority, among its credentialed is the fact that it transforms character. Modern testimonials to the Book of Books are given by the world's greatest writers, poets, painters and musicians. Its thirty-seven different authors wrote amid many different surroundings, and yet they made a perfect mosaic. The Bible has stood criticism and persecution. Its authority is proved by events of history. Its beauty is an other credential. Where can you find such poetry, rhetoric, drama, tragedy, epic, and above all, the speaker asked, where is there such hope as is given in the words of the Saviour regarding the Resurrection? It is our duty to give our prayers and money so that its pages may be revealed to every soul.

Rev. Dr. Heine, whose splendid work at the port was shown by some of the statements made, told of visiting in Halifax a camp, where there were Bulgarians, Russians, Galicians and Italians. He held four services, speaking in these languages, and last evening sang several verses of hymns in each tongue. At the Russian camp Bolsheviks had been trying to flame the men, and one trouble-maker was confronted with a Bible purchase from Dr. Heine, its owner, saying: "This will cure your poison." In the Italian camp men were gambling, and Dr. Heine prayed quietly till the men were touched, and insisted on the game being stopped.

He described a scene at St. John recently when his supply of Italian Bibles being low, he tried to leave the shed to save some for the next boat. The Italian goods master insisted on his coming back, and bought all his Bibles. They call him "The Man Who Sells the Book Which Tells About Jesus."

Speaks Many Languages
Dr. Heine spoke last evening in Chinese, Gaelic, Russian, Bulgarian, Italian. He emphasized the duty of educating as Christians, the horde of people coming to Canada.

A. A. Wilson, secretary, moved that last year's officers be re-appointed. President, E. N. Rogers; secretary, A. A. Wilson; treasurer, R. T. Hayes, with a board of twenty-five members. Music included an anthem by the choir of Central church, solos by Miss Campbell and Douglas, "Thorne" an organ selection by Miss Beryl Branch.

J. N. Rogers thanked the pastor and trustees for the use of the church, and the choir for the music. Rev. Canon Kohring pronounced the Benediction.

United Women's Missionary Society

Miss Flora Clark Tells of Seven Years' Work Among Lepers.

The meeting of the United Women's Missionary Society held at St. John's (Stone) church school rooms yesterday was splendidly attended, and its program was of much interest and inspiration. Mrs. James F. Robertson, president, was in the chair, and with her on the platform were Miss Flora Clark of Moncton, a returned missionary; Mrs. H. A. Goodwin, first vice-president; Mrs. C. F. Sanford and Mrs. J. R. Vanwart, secretary.

Mrs. Robertson opened the opening prayer. A Bible reading was given by Mrs. Walter F. Dunham, Fairville, who in a very beautiful way pointed out that the chief needs of a Christian character are willingness, courage and intensity of purpose.

Among The Lepers.
Miss Flora Clark gave a most interesting account of her seven years' work among the lepers of Vianagram, in the Madras Presidency, India. She told very simply, a story of courage and devotion while describing how the missionaries go about among the victims of this dreadful disease. Seven years ago there were only a few leprosy huts with ten lepers, none of whom were Christians. Now there are suitable stone buildings and seventy lepers who have embraced the faith of Jesus. Many have died sincere believers, and Christianity has made their sufferings bearable. Miss Clark told of the joy of the missionaries over the first baptism. She spoke of the missionaries taking due precautions against the disease, but said that they visited those too ill to attend the open air services held. There are fifty-five thousand inhabitants in Vianagram.

At the close of the fine address Mrs. George F. Smith spoke in appreciation of the address. She emphasized the virtues pointed out by Mrs. Dunham of willingness, courage and intensity of purpose. Mrs. Davidson, Rothsay, seconding a vote of thanks referred to the fact that leprosy in the Bible is a type of sin, and that in God's sight all are suffering from disease and need the healing power of the Saviour.

Election of Officers.
Mrs. J. S. Maglor read the report of the nominating committee, which was adopted, electing the following officers:

Mrs. David Willett, president.
Mrs. James F. Robertson, 1st vice-president.
Mrs. David Hutchinson, 2nd vice-president.
Mrs. R. A. Vanwart, secretary.
Miss Annie Scammell, assistant secretary.

Executive—Anglican, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. H. H. Pickett; Methodist, Mrs. Jacob Heaney, Mrs. Nell McLaughlin; Presbyterian, Mrs. J. S. Armstrong; Miss Homer, Christian, Mrs. P. J. M. Appleman, Mrs. J. S. Fladler; Congregational, Mrs. C. H. Flowelling, Mrs. J. H. Flowelling; Baptist, Mrs. George Hudson, Mrs. George J. Coggin.

An offering amounting to nearly forty dollars was taken for the benefit of the Free Kindergarten. Miss Clark made a donation to the funds.

Prayer was offered by Mrs. C. F. Sanford. Mrs. George Bell then sang a solo very acceptably and the meeting closed with the American Women's auxiliary meeting. The report of the Beneficence led by Mrs. Robertson.

Berlin, Jan. 6.—The "silent drama" here, at elsewhere, recently has won surprising favor with the public. The Berlin statistical yearbook says attendance at moving picture theatres now is 27 to 1 in favor over the spoken drama. There are 254 moving picture theatres in Berlin with a seating capacity of 117,000 and 34 "silent" theatres with a capacity of 44,000.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR GIRL

By HELEN ROWLAND
(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Man wants but little here below—and what he wants, he usually wants merely in order to hand it over to some woman.

To the callow youth, a girl is just some place to park his kisses and sort of localize his bloomy emotions.

The feat of a married woman's life is to keep the "tie-that-binds" at just that stage of elasticity, which will permit her husband to feel free to roam, and yet pull him back at the psychological moment—like one of those "baby-walkers" you've seen. The baby fancies that he is walking all over the house, whereas he is just toddling around himself, in a circle.

A man does the courting, the choosing, and the proposing, and then blames it all on the woman if it turns out unhappily—just as he blames his nightmare on the rabbit, which he insisted on eating.

The lower the back, the higher the price of the evening gown, but every man, who will cheerfully pay fifteen dollars for an extra "nice boy" to charm a college professor, read his palm, teach him to fix-trot, or eat a filipina with him.

Nowadays, a man can tell you the color of a girl's stockings, long before he has the faintest idea of the color of her eyes.

Whenever you see a good man going to the devil, a lady man going to work, a "slowboy" going the pace, or a "wildrake" going to church, it is because some woman started him that way.

To charm a callow youth, ask him his opinion of life; to charm a fat man, compliment his dancing; to charm an old man, call him, "Nice boy!" to charm a college professor, read his palm, teach him to fix-trot, or eat a filipina with him.

Will Purchase Red Triangle Hut

St. John Playgrounds Assn. the Purchasers—Fitted up for South End Boys' Club.

The Red Triangle Hut on the Exhibition Grounds will be purchased by the St. John Playgrounds Association and fitted up as a Boys' Club for the boys of the South End.

A motion that the original offer made by the Playgrounds Association to purchase the building, provided the South End Improvement League take over the direction of the club, was confirmed at a meeting of representatives of the league and other citizens of the South End held in the Board of Trade rooms last night.

Thomas Killen, the president of the South End League, was in the chair, and E. A. Ellis, secretary, recorded the minutes.

Offer Accepted
K. A. Haley, president of the Playgrounds Association, made a motion that the original offer of the Y. M. C. A. be accepted, and that the Red Triangle Hut be bought from them for the sum of $500. Frank White seconded the motion, and it was unanimously carried.

It was announced that Dr. L. D. V. Chipman had kindly offered to pay all expenses to be incurred in cutting a gateway and effecting an entrance to the building from Sheffield street. The doctor's generous offer was met with much appreciable comment, and it was moved that he be forthwith elected a member of the boys' committee.

Conditions Not Satisfactory
Mr. White expressed himself as disatisfied with present conditions in the South End League. He felt that meetings should be held more often, and monthly statements of the club's activities, financial and otherwise, be submitted. New and younger blood was needed, he said, and a re-organization might well be made with that object in view. Mr. White also suggested that a committee be appointed to supervise each one of the departments of the league.

Same Opinion
A. M. Belding concurred in Mr. White's views. He said that the South End League at the present time consisted of an executive of a few men. While they have been able to build the best 100-yard sprinting track in town, a good baseball diamond, playgrounds and skating rink, he felt that more citizens should join in the work. He spoke of the lack of checkers for the waiting rooms at the rink, and invited citizens of the South End to help in the work by volunteering. An offer to carry on one night each week, made by A. F. Weatherhead, on behalf of himself and wife was gratefully accepted.

The meeting expressed themselves in favor of re-organizing the league and a motion was passed that a meeting for that purpose be called of all citizens in the South End, the meeting to be held in the King Edward School next Tuesday evening.
