HARRIMAN ARRESTED AT YALE-HARVARD RACE

Taken Aboard a Revenue Cutter and Treated Like a Common Prisoner

Railway Czar Refused to Move Motor-Boat Out of Way of Contestants, and Roosevelt's Naval Aide Ordered Millionaire Into Custody—A Magnificent Struggle Between "Old Rivals, But the 'Crimson' Lost by Three Seconds.

New London, Conn., June 27.—Before the greatest crowd that ever witnessed a race on the Thames river, the Yale crew this evening, rowing on an average of four strokes to the minute less than Harvard, held the big Cambridge crew even until the last half mile, when they let out their speed and won a great race by a scant boat length. Never once in the whole four miles did the long, graceful shells cease to lap each other. The delicate prows engaged between the strokes and the thousands aboard the trains and every kind of floating craft and those who lined the shore sent cheer upon cheer to the old rivals as they fought out one of the greatest races in the history of Harvard-Yale boating. Yale's time for the four miles was twenty-one minutes and ten seconds; Harvard's, twenty-one minutes and thirteen seconds.

Harriman Arrested.
The race was accompanied by one disagreeable incident. This was the arrest of E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate, by Lieutenant Billard, President Roosevelt's naval aide. Lieutenant Billard, who was in charge of the revenue cutter, had warned every boat owner not to follow the race. The big "various" had started when Mr. Harriman, in a powerful motor boat, started to follow the race. Lieutenant Billard and Chairman Schweppe, who were aboard the regatta committee boat, the Arrow, repeatedly warned Mr. Harriman to stop his engine and get out of the course. Mr. Harriman not only paid no attention to them, but took a position right alongside of the referee's boat, and held it off the navy yard. Lieutenant Billard signalled for a launch and tooted the revenue cutter to look around.
"You are under arrest, sir," shouted Lieutenant Billard. "You will give yourself up to this man, who will take you aboard the Gresham to await my orders." Then it was discovered that the man in the powerful and speedy motor boat was Mr. Harriman. Chairman Schweppe, of the regatta committee, was very angry and he shouted to Mr. Harriman in tones which the latter could not mistake. The millionaire levelled his forefinger at Chairman Schweppe and yelled back: "Young man, I will see you later."

BOND EXPECTED IN QUEBEC TODAY

Newfoundland Premier Will Stay Two Weeks in Canada Discussing Labrador Boundary Question.

St. John's, Nfld., June 27.—Sir Robert Bond, premier of Newfoundland, who has been in England attending the colonial conference and discussing the American fishery question with the colonial secretary, is expected to reach Quebec tomorrow. The premier will stay in Canada about two weeks for the purpose of talking up the Labrador boundary problem with the Canadian government.
Newfoundland has jurisdiction on the coast section of Labrador, but the extent of this has never been accurately determined.

STARTLING FIGURES OF CANADA'S GROWTH

Nearly $400,000,000 More Capital in Industries Than Five Years Ago—Products Increased $234,000,000 During the Same Period—Some Decreases.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Ottawa, Ont., June 27.—The census and statistics department issued a bulletin today on the capital employed in manufacturing establishments in Canada in 1905. The amount of capital in manufacturing industries was $843,931,178 as compared with $449,916,487 in 1900. This shows an increase for the five years of $394,014,691 or about 88 per cent, while production increased by $234,000,000, or about 50 per cent. The disparity in the ratios of increase is said to be due to the inability of recently established works to produce to their full capacity. In car and carwork, for example, the ratio of production to capital in 1905 was 151, and in 1900 it was 101, in Portland cement works it was 85, and in smelting works it was 67 and 32, and in electric light works it was 17 and 9 for each year respectively. The five years have been a growing period in industrial investment as the full results are not yet realized.
The capital invested in agricultural implements increased from $18,207,342 in 1900 to $28,409,808 in 1905.
Axe and tools from $1,109,890 to $3,472,673.
Boots and shoes from $11,005,800 to $11,619,163.
Bread, biscuits and confectionery from $6,896,204 to $10,367,797.
Brick, tile and pottery from $4,210,244 to $7,110,683.

CANADIAN MAY STOP UNDESIRABLES

Feeling That Government Assisted Emigrants Better Go Somewhere Else

NO SETTLEMENT YET

Sir Edward Grey Says No Understanding in Regard to Newfoundland Fisheries Has Been Arrived At With American Government—Obstructionists May Delay B.N.A. Bill.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Montreal, June 27.—Special cables from London say: Hon. Thomas Bent, premier of Victoria, will sail on the Empress of Ireland tomorrow, returning to Australia. He proved the most outspoken critic of the British policy at the colonial conference, resulting in Lord Elgin's refusal to invite the state premiers and give them imperial recognition.
The popularity of the Canadian route to the Antipodes was also attested by the choice of the Empress of Ireland by Lady Plunkett, wife of the governor of New Zealand, and daughter. Marconi and his wife will also sail tomorrow in connection with his Canadian enterprises.
Bruce Walker, who succeeds W. T. R. French as the head of the Canadian emigration office here, will leave tomorrow for a visit to Ottawa.
The feeling is growing that the time is approaching when Canada may do well to put some check on the movements for emigration assistance to those out of work through boards of guardians and other municipal charity bodies. The best classes of emigrants are unquestionably those who pay their own fares. These better classes will go to Canada anyway, and the question is being quietly discussed whether Canada might not leave the less desirable, who need assistance, to Australia and other colonies.
Among the other Empress of Ireland passengers are Hon. Adam Beck and Col. Lessard, both of whom have been concerned in the international horse show in London, and W. Shaughnessy, son of the president of the Canadian Pacific.

OBSTRUCTION TO B. N. A. BILL

Premier McBride, of British Columbia, will close his mission to London today, and will sail in the Empress of Ireland tomorrow. It is not probable that the obstruction to the British North America bill in the house of commons will prove serious. A little group of opposition members, including Messrs. Bannister, Claude and Hay, are not sorry for any opportunity of giving Winston Churchill and the government a dig, but they are most unlikely to go the length of impeding the bill. It will, however, now need a special push to pass the bill through both houses before July 1. The suggestion that Mr. McBride is in any way responsible for the obstruction is not seriously credited.
In the house of commons today, Sir Edward Grey said that no understanding has yet been arrived at with the United States government respecting the Newfoundland fisheries question.

W. B. NORTHRUP, M. P. MARRIES MRS. CLEMON

Toronto, June 27.—(Special)—W. B. Northrup, M. P., Belleville, and Mrs. Schryer Clemon, daughter of the late J. C. Fitch, were married here today at St. James' cathedral, Rev. Canon Welsh officiating.

TORONTO WANTS ITS IMPRISONED BASEBALL PLAYER RELEASED

Toronto, June 27.—(Special)—Large numbers of Toronto people are signing a petition to the minister of justice to release Tim Flood, baseball player, sentenced to fifteen days jail for assaulting Umpire Conway.

EVIDENCE ENDED IN LONG TRIAL

Presiding Judge, Following Decision in Thaw Case, Refused to Allow Prosecution to Impeach Girl's Story of Ruin—Expert Declares Judge Loving Was Sane When He Killed Estes.

Houston, Va., June 27.—The taking of evidence in the case of former Judge Loving, who was placed on trial in the circuit court of Halifax county here last Monday for the murder of young Theodore Estes on April 22, was concluded this afternoon. The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning when the instructions to the jury will be given. It will be argued before Judge W. R. Barksdale, the presiding magistrate. The rapidity with which the trial has progressed has been most remarkable.
Today marked a most important turning-point in the case, when Judge Barksdale rendered an opinion concerning the admissibility of certain evidence, the decision dealing a heavy blow to the plans of the prosecution. Attorney Daniel Harmon for the state yesterday announced that the story told by Miss Elizabeth Loving to her father that she was drug-fed and assaulted by Theodore Estes was a fabrication and that Estes never offered any indignities to the girl, even suggesting that there might be another motive back of the killing. The defense objected to the introduction of this testimony on the ground that it had no bearing on the case and whether true or false had nothing to do with the question of the insanity of Judge Loving at the time of the tragedy. Judge Barksdale, in a lengthy opinion, today sustained the contention of the defense and among the cases he cited as authority was the famous Thaw trial in New York. After the opinion of Judge Barksdale had been rendered the prosecution began the examination of a number of witnesses in rebuttal of the evidence introduced by the defense that Loving was

C. R. PROHIBIT BOARD FORMED

General Manager Pottinger, Chairman, and First Meeting in a Few Days

IN EFFECT SINCE JUNE 1

Old Sol Got Rid of Spots Wednesday—Biggest Comet in Four Years Discovered by Ottawa Observatory—Will Be Visible to Naked Eye Soon.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Ottawa, June 27.—The brightest comet seen in four years has just come to the notice of J. S. Plaskett, who has charge of the big telescope at the Dominion Observatory. The wandering member of the solar system is approaching the sun and is daily growing more brilliant. At present the comet can be seen through an opera glass in the early morning towards the southeast, and in a few weeks will probably be visible to the naked eye. The object can easily be distinguished from a star on account of its haziness and larger diameter. Any person expecting to see the body with a long fiery tail will be disappointed because this popular notion of a comet is rarely realized. The comet will increase in brightness the September, when it can be nearest the sun. During this time the curious comet will be an object of daily observation by Mr. Plaskett.
The sun spots which came into view some time ago disappeared yesterday. This was the result of old sol turning on his axis, a motion which is made every twenty-six days.
David Pottinger, general manager, chairman; John Stewart, Montreal, locomotive engineer; J. W. Nairn, Truro, locomotive engineer; W. A. Dube, Quebec, division superintendent, and T. C. Burpee, Montreal, engineer, is the president board of the Intercolonial railway management and Stewart and Nairn by the employees. The new act has been in operation since June 1.
The board will hold its first meeting in a few days. There was some delay in appointing the two representatives of the railway because of the absence of the acting minister, but Mr. Butler took up the matter and had the appointments put through so that the board would get to work and make its recommendations in regard to superannuated aged and infirm employees.
At present a petition for the appeal of the Canadian temperance act in Cape Breton is before the state department. There is opposition to the petition and Mr. Ross of Ross and Macdonald, Sydney, was heard today by the justice department against it. Mr. McDonald, of Sydney, represented the petition.

WHOLESALE DESERTIONS FROM BRITISH FLEET

St. John's, Nfld., June 27.—According to the officers of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who were here today to join their consorts, the Good Hope, the Roxburg and the Hampshire, off Cape Race, 183 men deserted from the British fleet while the vessels were at Hampton Roads and other American ports. The four ships are on their way to Portsmouth (Eng.).
The French cruiser Eclair, which came here to assist the Argyle in the naval programme arranged in celebration of the birthday of King Edward, remained in port. The ship's company, including the crew of St. Pierre (Mig.), are being entertained by the colonial and city officials.

COMMONS VOTES TO CURTAIL VETO POWER OF LORDS

Proposition to Abolish Upper House Rejected Three to One.
London, June 27.—The three days' debate in the house of commons ended at midnight, when Premier Campbell-Bannerman's resolution in favor of curtailing the power of the house of lords in vetoing bills passed in the house of commons, was carried by 422 to 147 amid loud ministerial cheers. The amendment for a total abolition of the house of lords was rejected by 315 to 100.
The speeches throughout have been of an interesting character, maintaining a high level. Herbert H. Asquith, chancellor of the exchequer, in winding up the debate, reiterated emphatically that in his view the opinion of the country was against a single chamber.
By adopting Premier Campbell-Bannerman's resolution, he said, they would take the first and longest step on the road to final emancipation of the people.
The premier, on leaving the house, was given a great ovation.

ALLOWED VIRGINIAN TO CUT OUT SYDNEY CALL

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Montreal, June 27.—(Special)—Permission was granted the Virginian by wireless on authority of Sir Richard Cartwright not to call at Sydney with the mails this voyage on account of the fog. The Virginian will land her mails at Rimouski tomorrow.

DENIES EXISTENCE OF "INNER CIRCLE"

Former President Boyce of Western Federation of Miners on Stand

FIERY SPEECH

Advocated Miners Arming and Forming Rifle Clubs—Judge Rules Adversely to Defence in Showing Counter-Conspiracy—Another Denial of Orchard's Story.

Boise, Idaho, June 27.—A ruling made today by Judge Wood while Edward Boyce, one of the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners and now a wealthy mine owners of the Coeur d'Alenes, was testifying in behalf of William D. Haywood, may limit materially the showing of the defense as to the existence of the counter-conspiracy against Haywood and his associates.
Judge Hawley, for the state, objected to the general question as to the policy and practice of mine owners throughout the west in blacklisting union miners, and in the argument that followed, Clarence Darrow, for the defense, claimed the same latitude in proving a counter-conspiracy. That the state employed in showing a conspiracy. Mr. Hawley contended that the state had practically shown the existence of a conspiracy by Harry Orchard and by so doing had laid the foundation for and made the connection of all the evidence subsequently offered on the subject. He said that the defense was trying to show a counter-conspiracy by proving various isolated instances and certain general conditions, none of which were connected with the case, and for none of which a proper foundation had been laid.
In ruling, the court accepted in part the contention of the prosecution, and limited the proof of the defense along this line to events in Colorado and the Coeur d'Alenes connected with the case as now established.
"Ed" Boyce was the principal witness of the day, and his testimony was chiefly devoted to the history and work of the Western Federation. He denied the existence of an "inner circle," or that there had ever been a conspiracy in the organization to do an illegal act. The chief importance of Boyce's cross-examination was the production of a speech by him at the convention of the federation at Salt Lake in 1898, in which he said that every union should have a rifle and every member bear a rifle, that the federation could march 25,000 armed men in the ranks of labor.
Boyce would not agree with the accuracy of the quotation, but saying that the sentiment was correct, declared with spirit that when he spoke the words imputed to him he had in mind the misconduct of state troops in Colorado, the use of troops elsewhere against the federation, and the constitutional right of all citizens to bear arms, which was so much the right of the miner as the aristocrat.
William Basterly, one of the most important witnesses in the case, was called just before adjournment and his testimony will be continued tomorrow. He occupied the witness chair long enough, however, to deny directly the statements of the defense charging him with criminal misconduct in Colorado. He denied that he had ever discussed the Vindicator or any other plot with Orchard, that he had helped Orchard in experiments for the device that blew up the Vindicator mine, and denied that he and Orchard had discussed the Vindicator matter or any subject with Meyer and Haywood at federation headquarters in Denver.

IMPORTANT EVIDENCE IN COLLINS MURDER CASE

Two Witnesses Swear Prisoner Showed Lady's Gold Watch

Friend of Miss McAuley Declares Victim Wore the Same Attire When She Was Murdered That She Wore on Fishing Trip—Prof. Andrews Tells About Old Paint Sticking to Axe as He Proved by Experiment.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Hopewell Cape, N. B., June 27.—Thirteen witnesses were examined this afternoon in the Collins murder trial. Fred Bailey, son of the station agent at Elgin, proved the finding of Father McAuley's driving reins in the culvert, near the station. His mother, Sarah Bailey, told of the prisoner arriving there and asking about the train and that he was greatly excited when he heard that the train had gone, and that she saw him walking along the railway in the direction of Petticoat. Sectionmen Barchard and Robinson testified to meeting the prisoner three-quarters of a mile from Elgin station, going towards Petticoat, on the track. William Berry, who lives about four miles further towards Petticoat, testified to the prisoner coming to his house and having his supper, which was the third meal the crown had proved he had had since leaving Father McAuley's. Ezekiel Bailey, at Forest Glen, swore he saw some one, thought to be the prisoner, on the railway track there, and directed him to Joyce's boarding house for the night.
Had Lady's Gold Watch.
Joseph Joyce, a son of the proprietor of the boarding house, swore that he saw the prisoner have two watches, one being a lady's hunting case gold watch, and the second an open-faced silver one.
James Young, a boarder at the same house, swore that he saw the gold watch in the hands of the prisoner, and also saw him counting money from his pocketbook. There were at least two bills and a quantity of silver coin.
Charles Carl swore that he met the prisoner within a mile of the Petticoat station on the morning of Tuesday, the 21st, that he asked the distance to the station, and what time the train went out.
Thomas Mellon, in addition to the evidence that he gave before about the finding of the horse belonging to the priest by the roadside, with only part of the harness on, gave the additional evidence that when he took the horse in the barn, he passed from the barn into the woodhouse through the door connecting the two buildings without going outdoors, that he saw a pile of shingles in the woodshed, but that was all he saw there in the woodshed.
A Lively Breeze.
The proceedings of the day were enlivened somewhat while the witness was giving his testimony. Mellon is almost entirely deaf, and Michael Teahan acted as interpreter and in a loud voice asked the witness the questions. On cross-examination Mr. McKewen asked if the witness saw all that was in the woodshed. The answer was somewhat delayed, but was finally answered in the negative. Mr. McKewen at this moment stated to the court that he saw Teahan shake his head at the witness as if to dictate the answer, and further that he saw the witness make a gesture and answer in a whisper in the affirmative, but that he afterwards changed his answer after getting the tip from Teahan.
Mr. Teahan denied the charge, and the judge said he saw or heard nothing of it, and a number of the jurors stated that they saw or heard nothing at the time.

SOLDIERS' VERSION OF ROTHESAY LOOTING

Declare They Were Hungry and in a Hurry, So Helped Themselves as There Was Only a Boy to Wait on Them—Allege They Left Payment on the Counter—Took Some Caramels—Col. Chipman Will Pay Damages—Weather Mars Sussex Camp Life.

Sussex, June 27.—The weather here still remains unsettled and it makes it most disagreeable for those in camp. For a time this afternoon the sun made its appearance but was soon hid from view by the heavy dark clouds that persist in overshadowing the camp.
From early morning until 6 p. m. the soldiers were all engaged at drill at regular intervals. No matter to what section of the camping ground one goes he will find some regiment being put through drill by its commanding officer.
Throughout the day many of the regiments attended target practice. Perhaps one of the prettiest drills in camp is that of the signal corps. The signaling is done by means of flags of different colors.
As a result of the heavy rain of yesterday the water became very muddy and an effort is being made to adopt means to prevent that occurring again.
Your correspondent visited the quarters of the 71st regiment this morning to ascertain what the regiment had to say as regards the accusations made against them relative to plundering a store at Rthesay. Col. Chipman, of St. Stephen, the commanding officer, took every means to ascertain the exact facts for The Telegraph. The colonel asked if the officers of the regiment individually at luncheon when they knew about the affair. The officers stated that the soldiers left Frederick having had an early breakfast and were unable to get anything to eat in St. John. The first stopping place was Rthesay and some of the soldiers went to the store, as stated in the report of the affair, and as there was only one boy in the store they helped themselves, asked the price of things, and left the money on the counter. Some of the soldiers told the officers that they went to the store intending to pay for everything and they did that when near one of the mess rooms did not overshadowing the camp.
Col. Chipman stated to your correspondent that he did not wish his regiment to be ill considered in the eyes of the public but he wished to place the blame where it belonged. The colonel said that the proprietor of the store should have reported the affair to him and he is willing to pay for whatever damage the proprietor of the store thinks has been done by his regiment.
