DOMINION RAYNSTERS "Made-in-Canada" Raincoats Are Good Style

Dominion Raynsters correctly interpret the happiest styles of the spring season in men's, women's and children's coats.

In addition, they are absolutely waterproof; which means that a Dominion Raynster will retain its stylish lines and a shapeliness after many months of wear.

This is because of the absolute reliability of the materials used in these garments and the thoroughness of every detail of their manufacture.

Made in a wide variety of styles and patterns. Ask to see the new spring models at your favorite store. All genuine "Raynsters" carry the guarantee label of the Dominion Rubber System. Look for it in the coat you select.

Under-Currents By The Duchess

It does neither, however. Miss Dypart, having regarded him for a moment or two with calm scrutiny, says:

"That's true" dispassionately: ad then after further reflection. "We'll, so I do: a little—very little".

"I feel as if I had known you for years" says Peyton. "Some people, don't you think, you know at once, whilst others—"

"You must be 'one of the others' " says she, regarding him with a judicial eye.

"Why? Do you mean you don't know me?" says he aggrieved. "Why, I tell me I'm the easiest fellow living to get on with. Oh! you can't look upon me as a mere stranger now."

"I don't see why not" says Griselda steadily. She turn round on her seat with a little quick movement as if to confront him more decidedly. "Do you know that this is only the third time I ever met you and—"

"And I have only myself to vouch for myself", says he sadly. "Well, what can I do to convince you that I am not altogether beneath your notice?"

"Oh, don't talk like that—flushing. "I want no one to tell me that—that," she hesitates and plucks at her gown with downcast eyes in the sweetest confusion—"I am sure you are a gentleman" she breathes at last very low.

"Why of course," bristly "I didn't mean that so much as—You see there are lots of gentlemen so called, whom you mightn't like, don't you see; and besides that, it makes me wretched to think we can't be more openly acquainted. There's my sister, for instance, she lives about twenty miles or so from this. She's in town now, of course, but she'll be down in August, July indeed I dare say, and—and I've been thinking if we could manage through her."

"I don't think anyone could manage Uncle Gregory", with a mournful shake of her head. "What's your sister's name?"

"Grace."

"Yes, but the other one?"

"Lady Riversdale."

"Well, now I know about your sister and know you have no father or mother. But tell me about that unpleasant brother of yours."

Mr. Peyton laughs. "I would if I could", says he indignantly. "But the fact is, he is neither pleasant nor unpleasant. He doesn't exist."

"What?" says Griselda, eying him with evident distrust. "Just think of what you are saying. And to deny your own brother too!"

Mr. Peyton gives a way once again to mirth that proves untimely.

"Is it a joke?" asks she severely, fixing him with a stern eye. "Are you going to persist in it—in your—well, your assertion?" It is plain she had meant to use a harsher term.

"Certainly I do", says he, now somewhat amazed.

"But have you forgotten then?" demands she, rising indignantly to her feet. "Why only five minutes ago" (oh how wittily time runs for the young!) "you told me you were very glad I wasn't his wife. How could I be the wife of nobody?"

How innumerable argument, and Peyton goes down before it.

"You misunderstood me", he says humbly. "You did indeed. I haven't a brother, never had, and only one sister. I've lots of uncles and aunts" deprecatingly "you'd like to hear about them. But they are specially uninteresting."

"I want to hear nothing more at all" says Griselda, who is plainly offended.

"Oh, don't go like this" entreats Peyton taking her hand in spite of her, and looking down with quite an anguished countenance upon the pretty ruffled one below him. "I think, if you only knew how miserable I was all yesterday, that you would be good to me to-day."

Griselda, having ried vainly, if delicately to release her hand, here looks up at him.

"You certainly said you had a brother," says she.

"I didn't; I didn't; I give you my word; it was all a mistake. Won't you believe me? Yes you will!" He has caught her hand by this time, and is looking eagerly with his honest eyes into her face. A little smile widens her lips.

"You make me believe" she says sweetly; and then, "Oh! I must run; I told Vera I should be home quite soon, and now—" She turns to her feet.

"Give me your hand" says he "and we'll make a fight for it" And together they race over the soft, smooth grass of that oval valley, through the little green entrance, and so on, until the turrets of Graycourt rise before them.

"You will come again to-morrow" says Peyton retaining her hand still, and gazing eagerly, entrancingly into her eyes.

"Oh, not to-morrow".

"The next day, then. I've an amount of rods at the inn; one a very nice light one. And I'll set it up for you and have it at that part of the stream where we met today. No, you shan't say you won't come. I won't listen. But I'll be there the day after to-morrow, and I'll wait for you till nightfall!"

"Oh, I wish you wouldn't. I certainly shan't be able to come; and I won't either indeed I won't. Vera says it's very wrong."

"Well, I'll wait" doggedly.

"You must blame yourself then; not me. I'm not coming. And at all events—I couldn't be there until three!"

"You will come then" says he, his face lighting up. "Three—five, any time, only come."

"Oh, I haven't said that" nervously "Good-bye; I am almost sure I shan't be able. She moves away from him, and then looks back. "Do put even a crust of bread in your pocket" she says anxiously. "It is so wretched to think of your starving like that!"

The University of Virginia plans to convert its Students' Army Training Corps barracks, built by the Government last year at a cost of $60,000 into a huge training camp for farmers.

WEEPING ECZEMA SOON RELIEVED

A Perfect Treatment For This Distressing Complaint

WASING, Ont. "I had an attack of Weeping Eczema; so bad that my clothes would be wet through at times. For four months, I suffered terribly. I could get no relief until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives' and 'Sootha Salva' The first treatment gave me relief.

Altogether, I have used three boxes of 'Sootha Salva' and two of 'Fruit-a-lives', and am entirely well" G. W. HALL.

Both these sterling remedies are sold by dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

"Fruit-a-lives" is also put up in a trial size which sells for 25c.

Mother! Give Child "Syrup of Figs" if Tongue is Coated

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty its bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, their little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or get naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs," because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to get on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts. There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation. Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.
