

dent in the Counties, and this Your Committee conceives to be the duty of the Grand Voyers wherever any portion of the Inhabitants require it.

Your Committee most respectfully recommend that a revision of the Road Laws be prepared, to be taken up early in the ensuing Session, with a view of reducing them into one Act; but particularly of introducing a system of management less burthensome to the subject, and more suitable to the present circumstances and institutions of the Province.

All which is nevertheless humbly submitted.

J. NEILSON,
Chairman.
