CHIPMAN, Lieut.-Col. LEVERETT DE VEBER. [Kings, N.S.]

Family came originally from Eng. during the old times of persecution, and settled in the old New Eng. States; at the termination of the Am. revolution, Ward Chipman, formerly of Mass., a graduate of Harvard University, and who held the office of Deputy Muster-Master-General of the Loyalist forces in the revolted Colonies, settled in N.B., and founded a branch of the family there; he subsequently became Chief-Justice and President of that Province. (See Sabine.) Another branch was founded in N.S. by Handey Chipman, who proceeded there before the close of the revolution. S. of the late
