

and such days as shall have been appointed for the celebration of the birth-days of Her Majesty and Her Royal Successors, and such other days as may be from time to time appointed as holidays by the Governor in Council.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time to appoint the times and mode in which any officer or person employed in the collection, management or accounting or any part of the Revenue, shall account for and pay over the public monies which may come into his hands, to the officer appointed to receive the same, and to determine the times, manner and form in which, and the officer by whom all Licences on which any duty shall be payable are to be issued.

Governor in Council to appoint the mode and times in which monies shall be received for and paid over.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, to allow to any officer or person employed in the collecting, managing or accounting for any part of the Revenue, such sums as they shall deem necessary to defray the actual and authorised disbursements of such person or officer, for his travelling expenses when travelling on duty, office rent, books, stationery or other contingencies and things requisite for the conduct of his official business.

Governor in Council may allow necessary disbursements of officers.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, to direct any officer or person employed in collecting, managing or accounting for any branch of the Provincial Revenue, to keep any books or accounts which they may deem it advisable to direct to be kept for the purpose of obtaining any statistical information concerning the trade or commerce of the Province, the public works thereof, or other matters of public interest, and to authorize and allow any necessary expense incurred for such purpose.

May authorize accounts to be kept for statistical purposes.

XIII. And be it enacted, That every person who shall be appointed, after the commencement of this Act, to any office or em-

Officers to an oath of office.