CUP Charter

I. WHEREAS the Canadian student press believes in the following principles:

- 1) That freedom of expression, and debate by means of a free and vigorous press is essential to the effectiveness of an educational community in a democratic society;
- 2) a. That while the student press is a function of the student government or of the university administration this should in no way be allowed to impair the freedom of the student press;
 b. That the student press should be free from all forms of external interference;
- 3) a. That it is essential to a free student press that it be responsible for the views and opinions it expresses; and
 b. That the basic duties of such a free student press are to present the varied opinions of the students it represents, to present news fairly and without bias, and to interpret local, national and international events and issues of interest and import to students to the best of its ability.

II. AND WHEREAS freedom of the student press has been abridged in the following ways:

- 1) Confiscation of issues of student newspapers due to the publication of material which faculty or administrative authorities considered detrimental to the reputation and the welfare of the institution or some department of the institution;
- 2) Suspension, expulsion, or threats of similar action against student editors, or suspension or threatened suspension of publications because of the publishing, or the proposed publishing, of matters which faculty or administrative authorities considered detrimental to the reputation and the welfare of the institution, or some department of the institution;
- 3) Control of the content of a student newspaper through censorship by faculty, administrative authorities, or the student government, so that the student newspaper tended to become a public relations organ of the institution or an instrument of the student government;
- 4) Financial pressure used to limit or retaliate against editorial policy;
- 5) By censorship of articles and/or editorial comment, by civil and academic authorities; and
- 6) By inordinate and excessive social pressure used to prevent publication of particular issues or opinions.

III. THEREFORE the Canadian student press affirms its belief that it should be free from all the abuses listed under Article II and declares the following fundamental rights, duties, and responsibilities necessary for the effective implementation of the principles of Article I:

- 1) That the Canadian student press should be free from pressure by student governments, university authorities, or any external agencies;
- 2) That within the restrictions of the laws of libel, and within the scope of their responsibilities and duties as outlined in Article I, the Canadian student press should be autonomous; and
- 3) That the Canadian student press should be free to develop so that it can continue to fulfill its role in the academic community.

WANTED:

PERSONNEL FOR 'CUNB'

The UNB Radio Society is now a full-fledged constitutional part of the SRC. 'CUNB' is gaining experience by sponsoring the SRC Saturday night dances which are broadcast over closed circuit to the dance floor. This closed circuit network is similar to the proposed system for the residences and other university buildings. The society will have its studios on campus and from there will broadcast as a closed circuit radio station.

Personnel from all faculties
