

MARITIME CHAMPS

Raiders at College Olympics

The UNB Red Raiders will be warming up at the Canadian Inter-collegiate Athletic Union Olympics opening today in Alberta. The Raiders captured the Maritime Inter-collegiate Basketball Championships Monday night by winning 67-62 over the St. Mary's University Huskies. This is the first time that the Raiders won the championship in 22 years.

Rick Cotter, Dan Patterson, and Dave Nutbrown led the way to the victory. Cotter came up with 20 points to lead the Raiders. Four of his points came on consecutive foul shots in the final 20 seconds of the game as St. Mary's threw a full court press at UNB and were forced into costly fouls.

Patterson turned in his best game of the season as he piled up 18 points and hauled down 11 rebounds. Dave Nutbrown also came up with a strong performance and dumped 16 points for the new champions. St. Mary's led in a 21-16 lead in the first 10 minutes of the game but five minutes later, UNB was on top 25-23. In the second half, the teams were dead-locked at 43-43 after the first five minutes and then took turns grabbing for the lead to the end.

With one minute remaining in the game, St. Mary's led 62-61. It was Rod Cox who basketed the decisive shot that sent the Raiders flying to Alberta.

Throughout the game, UNB stuck to their methodical style of conservative ball while St. Mary's played in their usual firehouse style.

St. Mary's had 19 of the 29 fouls during the game. UNB made 16 points on their free throws while SMU made 4 out of 11.

Played at the Mount Allison Athletic Centre in Sackville, over 1500 fans watched the game.

Lapinette

the advertising bunny.

Lapinette, illustrating her short hop technique.

One day our lapinary friend was busy making a short hop across campus when she espied a truck transporting copious quantities of carrot cupcakes.

but such culinary consummations call for capital.

and capital, kiddies, means like banks.

funny we should mention that.

now lappy was short of cash, this isn't surprising, because we would be hard put to advertise this way if she weren't.

So she romped over to the Campus Bank, which was nearby, hatched, and garnered a few pennies therefrom.

and she still had time to catch the cupcake vendor and blow the lot before he was out of sight.

so we have a happy lappy.

but one problem.

at this rate we'll soon have the fattest rabbit in town.
