Hon W L Mackenzie King:-

Dear Sir:- I am anxiously watching events at Ottawa and am certainly wishing no good luck to the Tories, but you saw how our administration set forth from the people that had piled up such a mountain of proscellity and infamy? - Some of our own friends used to give Borden a certificate for decency and honesty but could an honest man have taken into his cabinet accountant like Rodger, whose only qualification for the position was proscellity & the ability to use it?

I hope our friends will be able to force a dissection, but we should use all our efforts to educate the people, before the election since a proportion of the electorate fail to understand the necessity of having a navy of any kind; and though perhaps more in favor of a Canadian navy than a Contribution, would rather see against both
