Dear Mr. Meighen:

I should like to take this opportunity to express to you congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of your birthday.

I am happy to hear that you are feeling so well. I recall your great kindness to me on various visits to Toronto and am looking forward to seeing you again and discussing the days of Sir Robert Borden. I am hoping to go to Quebec and having a chat with Sevigny.

I am also writing Col. Hugh Clark and I hope he will be good enough to give me the benefit of his recollections.

Yours sincerely,

Heath Macquarrie, M.P.
