5th March. 6.

Sir,

With reference to the letters and Statements forwarded by you to the Department in regard to the condition of your books and to the nature and extent of the defalcation of Mr. J. P. Wright, I have to inform you that it was found impossible to understand the condition of the accounts without a copy of the Bank Pass book. This was accordingly sent for and it arrived in due time. But instead of enabling the Department to arrive at a satisfactory
