

there was no other way of proving by lawful evidence the fact that the letter in question had been forged by Armstrong. Mr. Beatty's charges are in my opinion fair and reasonable, and, as the interests of justice necessitated his retention, I would recommend that payment of his account be approved.

Colonel,
Judge Advocate-General.