PURPOSE

The Municipal Intelligence Bureau is now ready to furnish information about the City of Toronto; also to furnish information about any other city in the Dominion of Canada.

ASK US ABOUT

Conduct of the city's business, public men, churches, schools, theatres, business houses, election returns, clubs, societies, Board of Trade, etc.

SPECIAL FEATURE

A special feature of the Municipal Intelligence Bureau is the publication of the Toronto Municipal Year Book, the purpose of which is to give accurate, intelligent and ready information about the City of Toronto.

Hubert Groves, director of the M.I.B., is a former Toronto newspaperman, having been municipal reporter at the City Hall for the World and News.

HOW THE BUREAU IS SUPPORTED.

SALE OF YEAR BOOK.

The Municipal Intelligence Bureau does not solicit public subscriptions. It is self-supporting. Through the sale of the Toronto Municipal Year Book the Bureau maintains itself, and establishes its Service Bureau. Charge is also made for written reports.

MEMBERSHIP.

Anyone can become a member of the Bureau by purchasing two copies of the Toronto Municipal Year Book. One dollar per volume. Each member is asked to send one copy outside of Toronto, to
