

THE NORTH BLOCK HOUSE.

This Block House was destroyed by fire about twenty-five years ago. The middle Block House, on the west side of Bois Blanc, was built into the residence and still stands.

THE TECUMSEH STONE

On Mr. Simon Fraser's lawn. It was from this stone the wily chief used to harangue his warriors. From it also he scored the retreating British General Proctor whom he deemed a coward for not awaiting the inevitable onset of the pursuing General Harrison.
