In view of the fact that a horse show is likely to be added to the Winter Fair the Ontario Horse Breeders' Association were asked to send four representatives from that body to the Winter Fair Board. The date of the next fair is fixed for December 7 to 11, the week following the International. Considerable discussion International. Considerable discussion arose over allowing breeding cows and heifers to compete in the beef classes. A rule was finally passed demanding that exhibitors of cows or heifers over 2 years old in the beef cattle classes make a old in the over cattle classes make a statutory declaration that such animals would be sold for slaughter and not for breeding purposes. No further changes were made in the rules and regulations. e matter of adding amateur d the appointment of judges the hands of the executive.
