Religious Reception at St. Joseph's Convent

On Thursday morning, July 16th, the feast of our Lady of Mount Carmel, the chapel of St. Joseph's Convent, Hamilton, presented to those who filled the spacious edifice a truly festive appearance.

At 10:15 the bell announced the hour for the ceremony of reception and expectant eyes were turned eagerly towards the procession moving slowly through the chapel aisle.

The holy sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated by Right Rev. Monsignor Mahony, V. G., who, representing His Lordship Bishop Dowling, was the officiant of the ceremony.

Speaking at the dinner of the New England Society in 1854, Daniel Webster said: "In our day there is a more enlarged and comprehensive Christian philanthropy, and a conviction prevails, justified by the experience of our government, that all sects and denominations may be safely tolerated."

desired to possess eternal life, the reverend speaker, from our Saviour's answer, clearly distinguished the difference between the commands and the counsels of God.

The parents of the novices elect were congratulated upon having a daughter to pour forth her daily prayers before the altar of God, for unlike the rich young man to whom goodness was not wanting, this favoured child has heard the call and heeded it also.

In conclusion the Right Reverend Monsignor expressed his pleasure in seeing the ranks of the Sisters increased. Let us hope that his instructive and zealously delivered discourse may produce abundant and salutary fruit and that many more young ladies may hear and heed the Divine call to consecrate their talents and their lives to the service of God in the religious life.

The following clergy were present at the ceremony: Very Rev. D. Craven, Rev. A. J. Lyles, Rev. J. F. Hinchev, Rev. P. J. Maloney, Rev. J. O'Sullivan, Rev. J. Flahaven, and Rev. J. McGoey.

Three young ladies received the habit: Miss Margaret Martin of Chepstow, in religion Sister Mary Leonie, Miss Agnes Campbell of Arthur, Sister Mary Annunciate, Miss Bertille O'Sullivan of Hamilton, Sister Mary Celestine.

Daniel Webster's Defence of Catholics

It was the great Daniel Webster who sixty years ago disarmed bigotry and dispelled prejudices that are being resurrected in our day.

of the supreme judicature of the United States is a Catholic. No man supposes that the judicature of the country is less safe or that justice is dispensed with less certainty because the chief justice is a sincere and ardent adherent of the Catholic religion.

Learn to Appreciate

A question suggests itself: Do Catholics in general appreciate the magnificent educational system of their Church? Offhand it is easy to answer. Many do not.

There will be a variety of shows and something that will appeal to all. What pleasure one will derive will depend on the nature of the show. There will be a trained Wild Animal Show, the Lotta Musical Show, Kempt's Model City and Farm, an Aztec Village, Laughland, The Igloos, the Hudson, The Jumping Hoop, Egyptian Halls, and many others.
