The Family. Up-hill.

BY CHRISTINA ROSSETTI Does the road wind up-hill all the day? Yes, to the very end. Will the day's journey take the whole long day

From morn to night, my friend.

But is there for the night a resting-place ? A roof for when the slow dark hours begin. May not the darkness hide it from my face ? You cannot miss that inn.

Shall I meet other wayfarers at night Those who have gone before. Then must I knock, or call when just in sight

They will not keep you standing at that door. Shall Lind comfort, travel-sore and weak ? Of labor you shall find the sum. Will there be beds for me and all who seek ?

Yea, beds for all who come.
