MISS F. E. CARROLL, Lady Principal

After being conducted through an old church by the verger, a visitor was so pleased with the official's courtesy and information that he insisted on giving him half a crown. The man shook his head sadly. "Thank you, sir," he said, "but it's quite against the rules." "I am sorry for that," said the visitor, about to return the half crown to his pocket. "But," added the verger, "if I were to find a coin lying on the floor it would not be against the rules for me to pick it up!"

The Rev. Tertius Poole, who has been curate-in-charge of the parish of Topsham, Devonshire, for some considerable time past, was presented on his leaving the parish with an illuminated address and a purse of £70. A handsome morocco bag was also given to Mrs. Poole. The presentation was made on behalf of the parishioners by Mrs. D'Urban; an oak Glastonbury chair, a handsome leather robe note case, a large size illustrated Bagster's Bible, and an oak writing case with inkstand were also given to Mr. Poole by the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School, and the members of various parochial guilds. Mr. Poole has held the curacy of Topsham for the past five years.
