

‘ will admit of. But among the several Matters
 ‘ which demand your serious Consideration, none, ‘ Gentlemen, is of more Importance, than to make ‘ some Provision, whereby a Scarcity of Corn and ‘ other Seed, in the most urgent Season, may be ‘ prevented or supplied; such an Evil, altho’ not ‘ uncommon, is not without Remedy; and to pro‘ vide that Remedy, and effectually apply it, will ‘ be a Precaution of such Wisdom and Prudence, ‘ as will not only be much to your Advantage and ‘ Profit, but will give you Credit and Reputation.

‘ I shall direct the proper Officers to lay before ‘ you such Papers as are necessary for your Inspec‘ tion; and I will communicate to you by Message, ‘ such other Matters as may, during the Session, oc‘ cur for your Consideration.

‘ I recommend to you, Gentlemen, Unanimity
 ‘ and Dispatch, and assure you of my most earnest
 ‘ Desire to forward and perfect every Measure, ‘ which can tend to your Advantage, Welfare, and ‘ Prosperity.’

Order’d, That Mr. Hinschelwood and Mr. Bren-zton do prepare an Address in Answer to his Excellency’s Speech.

Then the House adjourn’d till Tomorrow Morning Eleven o’Clock.

Wednesday, October 11, 1769.

The Committee appointed to prepare an Address in Answer to his Excellency the Governor’s Speech, reported an Address prepared by them accordingly, which being read, was agreed to with some Amendments.

Order’d, That it be engros’d.

The Treasurer of the Province, by Order of his Excellency the Governor, presented to the House,
