A VOTE OF CENSURE The Loot From Challoner, Mitchell &

Williams' Motion in Connection With the Corbin Land Grant.

Coal Mine Inspector Instructed That Their Employment is Forbidden-Fort Sheppard and Other Bills Advanced a Stage-Kaslo-Slocan Grant.

[From our Special Correspondent.] VICTORIA, April 26 .- Today in the house Wil liams moved, seconded by Semlin, what is intended to be practically a vote of censure on the government to the effect that the Nelson & Fort Sheppard railway has been allowed to survey and take up its land grant in a manner not con templated by the act. The debate was adjourned at the request of the mover, who said he is having an act prepared on the subject. The Nelson & Fort Sheppard bill was reported complete with amendments and the report adopted. In reply to Mr. Walkem, Colonel Baker, minister of mines, stated that the inspector of coal mines had been instructed to carry out the the law he would not be so anxious to secure the provisions of the Coal Mine Regulations act and prevent the further employment of Chinese in the Union collieries.

The private bills committee reported the pre-amble proved in the Fairview Power and Water bill and the Kootenay Electric Company's bill. Cotton has given notice to move that the Dominion Government be asked to take steps to prevent the unrestricted immigration of Japanese in the event of Canada becoming a party to the British and Japanese treaty. Jewelry Stolen From Challoner, Mitchell & Spring's Held at Spokane.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 27.-[Special.]-United States Marshal Drake this morning recovered $1,200 worth of rings, watches and other articles of jewelry, thought to have been stolen from Challoner, Mitchell & Spring's, at Rossland, in February. The marshal seized the goods on a requisition of a writ of seizure, issued by Judge Hanford in the United States district court yes-terday, alleging that the goods were contraband, having been smuggled into the United States without paying the customs duties.

After the requisition of seizure had been issued served on Constable Orr, Prosecuting Attorney C. O'BRIEN REDDIN, President.
