THE COURIER.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 11, 1851.

We yesterday shortly noticed the representations of the Globe respecting the public conduct of the Upper and Lower Canada Members of the Council and Assembly. We cannot for a moment, as we said, doubt the truth of the Globe's statements, because he was behind the curtain during the whole time that the play was acting; neither did he see the actors, nor did he see the audience.

Mr. Lafontaine made a few remarks nearly inaudible, but he was understood to assent to the resolutions of the Council and Assembly.

Mr. Mackenzie was commenced by ridiculing the majority that had suddenly sprung up and voted against the Globe, and then he proceeded to attack Mr. Blake, and then he proceeded to attack Mr. Mackenzie.

Mr. Mackenzie thought it due to the House and the country, to state that he was not a member of the Council and Assembly, and that he was not a member of the Council and Assembly.

Mr. Mackenzie was understood to assent to the resolutions of the Council and Assembly.
