THE SINKING OF THE FRANSE FISCHER

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The British steamer Franse Fischer, of London, has been sunk. Of the crew 53 were saved, including engineer Birch, steward Taylor and seaman Hillier.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—A Central News Agency states a collier has been sunk by a Zeppelin, 13 men being drowned.

GRIMSBY, Eng., Feb. 4.—Skipper William Martin of the trawler 'King Stephen,' who has arrived here reports that early on Wednesday morning in the North Sea, he saw Zeppelin L-19 with boats and portion of her envelope submerged. He noticed from 17 to 20 members of the crew clinging to the envelope. They asked to be taken off, but as the men on Zeppelin outnumbered the trawler's crew the skipper declined to accede to the request and instead he came straight into Grimsby and reported the matter to the Admiralty Authorities.

The zeppelin airship is believed to have been one of those participating in Monday night's raid on England.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—According to a story current to-night which, however, cannot yet be confirmed, the crew of the zeppelin were probably drowned. It seems that the trawler found so many men clinging to the zeppelin that she made no effort to rescue them and left them to their fate.

TOTAL PRUSSIAN LOSSES

The list also contains the names of several generals killed and two wounded. The missing include the entire 14 of the Jager Regiment.

PARIS, Feb. 4.—Spain wishes above all things to remain neutral, said Count Romanones, Spanish Premier, in an interview accorded to a noted French writer. That is the unanimous sentiment of the country, he said. The reading room of the Chamber has fallen in. Women who jumped from the second story of the building were badly injured. Several other persons were overcome with smoke and have been taken to hospitals. Sir Robert Borden got out safely. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was not in the House.

Germans Admit
the Sinking of Lusitania was Illegal Act

BERLIN, Feb. 4.—Information reaching the Associated Press to-day indicates that under the circumstances Germany will admit that the sinking of the Lusitania was an illegal act. The new instructions forwarded to Ambassador von Bernstorff, according to this information, contains simply one phrase of the enunciation of the proposed Note of regret for the sinking of the Lusitania. The suggested sentence is short, consisting of only eight words and does not contain the word illegal. "It represents the extreme limit of Germany's concessions in the Lusitania case."

SWEDES INDIGNANT OVER SEIZURE OF STEAMER

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 4.—The seizure of the Swedish steamer Presto by the Germans who have taken her to Swinemunde has excited great indignation on the part of the press and public. The vessel was bound from Stockholm to Gothenburg.

LATEST PARTICULARS OF THE OTTAWA FIRE

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—A fire of unknown origin which broke out in the reading room of the main Houses of Parliament just after the resumption of sitting to-night caused the Legislators to make a hasty exit through the windows, and by ladders to safety, on a bitter cold night without hats or overcoats. So rapidly did the dense smoke spread that many of them had difficulty in finding their way through the corridors. Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, was severely burned about the head and face. Dr. Michael Clark, M. P. Red Deer was burned about the hands.

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—The reading room situated on the northeastern corner of the Commons Chamber, filled with dense waves of smoke and immediately caused members to evacuate the House. WON'T PAY COUNCILLORS.

It is said that in the charter now being completed by the City Commissioners for submission to the Legislature, there is a provision that neither Mayor nor Councillors get pay or stipend of any kind. We have no doubt that most aspirants for civic honours are patriotic enough to let this be no deterrent to their zeal for accepting municipal responsibility.

Truth may be stranger than fiction, but some men make it hustle to keep ahead.
