AMAZING STORY OF AN ESCAPE FROM GERMAN PRISON TOLD BY A YOUNG CANADIAN SOLDIER

Pte. Harry Sanderson, 8th Batt., Winnipeg Captured in April 1915 and Taken to Ruheler, Later to Muenster, and Put to Work—First Attempt to Get Away Failed.

London, June 22.—How after many months of imprisonment in Germany he escaped after previous attempts had proved fruitless, was related yesterday by Private Henry Sanderson of the Eighth Battalion, clerk in the British-American Elevator Company, Winnipeg. Sanderson was captured on April 25th last year with many other Canadians who were likewise lost to their battalions. He was taken with his comrades to Ruheler, where they were placed in a church for the night, thence to Courtral, part of the journey being done on foot, part on rail. They were later put on a train for Muenster.

Shelled by British Airman One incident of the journey thither was that of a British aeroplane, which came over the line and dropped bombs which so damaged the line that the further journey of the Canadian prisoners was considerably delayed. On the journey, too, the German guards were most menacing to the prisoners. "They would have done us up all right," says Sanderson, "if it had not been for their officer. He said we had put up a very good fight and deserved to be treated properly. There was a stay of three weeks at Muenster, then, with Corp. Chipman, Privates Alderts, Chandler and Langstaffs, and other Canadians Sanderson was taken and left where they were asked to work in the mines. They retained, however, none of them had been used to working underground. After some delay, it was agreed they should work on the surface. He worked there until last September.

First Attempt to Escape It was during that time that he made his first attempt to escape. Sanderson's companion in this enterprise were Archibald Christopher, 8th, and S. G. Wood, Western Cavalry. The attempt came off on the first Sunday in September. Sanderson got away from the neighborhood comfortably and covered about 20 kilometers, living on apples, most of which were picked on the way. There were several incidents in this attempt to escape, which if possible to describe now, would make engrossing reading.

Beaten With Wire Cable However, Sanderson found himself back at his old place under guard. Next day the other sharers in enterprise were also brought in. "That night," he says, "several of the guard came and took us out of our cells, first Wood, then Christopher, and lastly myself. One man beat us with a piece of wire cable, another meanwhile held something over our mouths so that we could not shout. There was a Sergeant in charge of the men who did this. We were sent to Munster for trial and sentenced to fourteen days imprisonment. At the trial he had an interpreter, who made the charges of beating. When I came out of prison I had to wear the letter "E" on my clothes, showing that I had attempted to escape. Some time later this was removed, and I then volunteered for another working party. I took an Englishman's place on a farm and was there six weeks.

The Successful Attempt. "There was also a man of the Royal Fusiliers. We made it up to have another go at escaping. The next day came the chance. We worked for six days, hiding days between the hedges in woods and empty houses. We had plenty of food. "When we were walking along we passed a German officer cycling. Another time close to the frontier, we were taken into a guard house, but the guard thought we were Dutch and let us pass. We got into a deep wood and when we came out we found ourselves across the frontier. We were then transferred to the British consul's care, who sent us home. I am all right in myself, and so was my friend of the Fusiliers. He belongs to Lambeth.

Dutch Are Kind. Private Sanderson added that the Dutch could not have been kinder. He thinks there is no doubt the German common people are near starvation. They treat the Canadians just like Englishmen. In fact they don't recognize any difference, but they often ask how it was Canadians wanted to come such a way to fight when they were not compelled. One day in captivity there came a call for a party of prisoners to work on the Russian front. An English Sergeant told the German: "If you think the fellows will do anything to help you beat the Russians you might as well kill them right off here, because they won't."

WIFE GETS BIG ALLOWANCE BY ORDER OF COURT Mrs. Anthony Drexel Ordered to be Paid the Sum of $50,000 Per Annum. By Special Wire to the Courier. London, June 22.—Mrs. Rita Armstrong Drexel, wife of Anthony J. Drexel, the American banker, was given judgment against her husband for a yearly allowance of $50,000 by Justice Neville in the Chancery court yesterday. When the case was last before the court in December, 1915, Mr. Drexel contested the jurisdiction of the English courts owing to the fact that he was a resident of France. This point was decided against him and when court opened to-day, the banker's attorney said that as it had been decided that the English courts had jurisdiction he could not defend the case.

Mrs. Drexel separated from her husband in 1911 while they were living in London and it was announced that she proposed to institute divorce proceedings. These proceedings were dropped when the separation agreement was entered into by which Mrs. Drexel was to receive an annual sum of $50,000 and five policies on the life of her husband, aggregating $300,000, which were to be assigned to a trustee and held for her benefit in the event of the banker's death.

In July 1915, Mr. Drexel filed a suit for a divorce in Paris and stopped the allowance to his wife. The present suit was the result of this action.

Treasury Receipts Recent Diminution of Business on Stock Exchange Accounted For London, June 21.—The treasury receipts last week amount to £38,000,000, including £16,000,000 for treasury bills and £17,000,000 for exchequer bonds. This accounts for the recent diminution of business on the Stock Exchange where a quietly cheerful tone continued with a moderate turn over in the war loan.
