IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL SERVICE AT ST. JAMES' CHURCH

Thursday afternoon, July 13th, a Memorial Service was held in the Church of England parish church, Kentville, in honor of the late Lieut. Frederick Courtney Mellor, Newfoundland Regiment, First Canadian Contingent, who was killed in action on July 1st.

The service was in charge of Capt. J. F. Tupper, Chaplain of the 193rd Battalion. Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. D. Hull of Church Street, Cornwallis, N. S., and Rev. Rural Dean Dixon, Wolfville. Captain Suckling, Anglican Chaplain to the 85th Battalion, also took part. Mr. A. H. Morash presided at the organ and the 85th Band played the Dead March at the conclusion of the service. The sacred edifice was crowded with people of all denominations. A detachment of soldiers from the 193rd Battalion was also in attendance and was in charge of Lieut. Cunningham, a personal friend of the deceased hero.

Lieut. Colonel Borden, commanding the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, was present, as well as other friends of the deceased from the various Battalions. The late Lieut. Frederick Courtney Mellor was the eldest son of Reverend and Mrs. T. C. Mellor of Kentville. He was born at South East Passage, N. S. in 1888 and was baptised by Bishop Frederick Courtney, being the first child baptised by the distinguished Bishop after his consecration. Lieut. Mellor attended Kings College School for a number of years after which he entered the staff of the Commercial Cable Co. at Hazel Hill, N. S. About six years ago he was transferred to St. John's in Newfoundland where they established a new station. At the time of the outbreak of hostilities he enlisted as a private with the Newfoundland regiment. That regiment garrisoned Inverness and Edinburgh Castle, Scotland. While at the latter place he was given his Lieutenancy, and was sent back to Newfoundland to recruit. On his return to Scotland with the men enlisted by him they garrisoned Newton-on-Ayr. From there he proceeded to France, where he took part in many engagements and was killed in action on July 1st. Thus while performing the highest duties on earth he was called to still higher duties in Paradise.

His parents have the sympathy of all in their bereavement. Their only other son is serving in the trenches as a private at this moment and the Revd. Mr. Mellor has also himself offered for overseas service.

MAJ. STANLEY JONES DIES IN GERMAN PRISON CAMP

AMHERST, July 10.—Mrs. B. J. Lawson received word this evening of the death in a Hun prison of her brother, Major Stanley Jones, of Calgary. The late Major Jones was a son of Rev. Joseph and Mrs. Jones, formerly of Wolfville, N.S. He was educated at Acadia College, taught school in Manitoba, and saw his first active fighting in the Boer War, being a member of the first Nova Scotia contingent to go to South Africa. He was at Paardeberg, and was in the squad to which Cronje surrendered. After returning to Canada he studied law at Calgary where up to the time of the declaration of war with Germany he carried on a successful law business.

A Calgary paper states: "Mr. Jones was probably the first man to enlist for overseas service in Calgary, and perhaps the first in Canada, as he wired in his application for services to Ottawa as soon as war was declared, and before Canada had definitely decided to send troops to the war."

Mr. Jones went overseas as lieutenant, was promoted to captain, and was major when he died. He was twice wounded, and after recovering, returned to the front. He was in the celebrated battle of the 4th of June, was seriously wounded and taken prisoner, dying, on June 8th. He was accompanied abroad by his faithful wife, who at present is doing Red Cross service in France, having lately received distinguished honors for her excellent services.

Thus another gallant Nova Scotian has laid down his life for the Empire.
